AFFIDAVIT OF [REDACTED]
JUROR #630

PERSONALLY appeared before me, [REDACTED] who being first duly sworn, deposes and states as follows:

1. I was juror #630 in the case of State of South Carolina v. Richard Alexander Murdaugh tried in Colleton County, South Carolina.
2. Toward the end of the trial, after the President’s Day break but before Mr. Murdaugh testified, the Clerk of Court, Rebecca Hill, told the jury “not to be fooled” by the evidence presented by Mr. Murdaugh’s attorneys, which I understood to mean that Mr. Murdaugh would lie when he testified.
3. She also instructed the jury to “watch him closely” immediately before he testified, including “look at his actions” and “look at his movements,” which I understood to mean that he was guilty.
4. Immediately after he testified, the foreperson, [REDACTED] Juror #826, said Mr. Murdaugh was crying on cue.
5. The foreperson, Juror #826, criticized the former foreperson, [REDACTED] Juror #589, for handing Mr. Murdaugh a box of tissues when he was crying on the stand while testifying about his murdered son. She told the jury we cannot interact with Mr. Murdaugh because “that is what the defense wants us to do.”
6. The jury frequently discussed the case during breaks before deliberations.
7. Toward the end of the trial, Ms. Hill came into the jury room a lot.
8. Ms. Hill and the foreperson, Juror #826, had private conversations on multiple occasions. The foreperson, Juror #826, would tell the bailiff that she needed to speak with Ms. Hill. Ms. Hill would arrive, and then she and the foreperson, Juror #826, would go to another room to have a private conversation. The conversations typically lasted 5 to 10 minutes. The foreperson, Juror #826, never said anything about the content of the conversation. For example, she never communicated logistical information after those conversations. This happened two or more times, more frequently toward the end of the trial.

9. When we began deliberations, Ms. Hill told us that “this shouldn’t take us long,” and that if we deliberated past 11pm, we would be taken directly to a hotel. We had driven from our homes that morning and were not prepared to stay overnight. Additionally, smokers on the jury asked to be allowed to take smoke breaks but were told they could not smoke until deliberations were complete.

10. I had questions about Mr. Murdaugh’s guilt but voted guilty because I felt pressured by the other jurors.

11. After the verdict and immediately before sentencing, Ms. Hill pressured the jury to speak as a group to reporters from the television show,

FURTHER AFFIANT SAYETH NOT.
