Mandy Matney 00:00

I don't know who killed Stephen Smith, but I know his family has now waited 2316 days to get justice. And now after a particularly painful few months for the Smith family, I'm more determined than ever to get answers for them. My name is Mandy Matney. I'm the news director for FITS news.com. And I've been investigating the Murdaugh family for more than two and a half years now, and this is the Murdaugh Murders Podcast. Previously on The Murdaugh murders on June 22, huge news broke in this case, I was the first to report that the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division also known as SLED, the same agency investigating the Murdaugh murders opened an investigation into Stephen Smith death. SLED told me that this was based on information gathered during the course of the double homicide investigation of Paul and Maggie Murdaugh. So what happened to Stephen Smith? Like the probe of the 2019 boat crash that killed Mallory Beach, the 2015 investigation into Smith's was chaotic from the beginning derailed by jurisdictional perplexity and suspicions of investigative interference. Smith was found dead just before 4am on July 8 2015, he was found in the middle of Sandy Run Road in Hampton County, South Carolina, Stephen had a seven inch gash on the right side of his forehead, his head was warped by blunt force, the family kept the casket open so that people could see what was done to him.

Police Officer 01:43

Evidence here there is only evidence of where the body was found. There is no car parts parts no any type of parts of car on our truck or any other vehicle.

Anonymous Source 01:58

A bunch of people like I just left the house, the first official time yesterday. And I went into the store and a bunch of people kept coming up to me and saying people "You hear the Murdaugh boys are behind this."

Anonymous Source (2) 02:08

The rumors is going around Hampton that people keep coming up to me saying it was the Murdaugh boys.

Anonymous Source (3) 02:14

This name, people associated with this name had been going around kind of or putting the heat on people saying, you know, keep your mouth closed. If you heard something or whatever.

Kevin 02:25

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

First I heard he was shot. Then we heard it was a hit and run but recently probably a week ago, week and a half ago, I'd say something like that. I heard that these two maybe three young men were in the vehicle. They were riding down 601 and saw the car on the side of the road. I guess I saw a boy walking. They turned back around. I guess they were intending to, I don't want to say, you know, mess around with him or something like that and stick it out the window and hit him in I don't know if they hit him in the head or the back or where it hit him. And then that's pretty much all I heard, I didn't hear names, I heard a name and that name was, he goes by Buster Murdaugh

Todd Proctor 03:09

Buster was on our radar. Long before you were you know, the Murdaughs know that. They know that he's, he's on our radar. I don't have anything against them. But if it happened, like you said, I mean, if it happened.

Mandy Matney 03:25

On December 7 2015 The South Carolina Highway Patrol receives an anonymous tip and I'm quoting directly from the case file here quote, Dontario Aiken along with another black male and a white male parenthesis Murdaugh are the ones involved in death. end quote, December 18 2015 Proctor receives information from Dunkin about a man named Darrell Williams who says his stepson Patrick Wilson told him that Shawn Connelly struck and killed Stephen Smith. And then Todd Proctor writes something very interesting in the case file, quote, Mr. Williams stated that the reason that he was passing this information along was because Randy Murdaugh told him to call. So that brings us to December 21, 2015 Corporal Duncan at the Highway Patrol interviews Nick Guin of the Hampton Police Department in reference to quote a tip that came in from Sergeant Burns. This is about Patrick Wilson. To recap a few weeks after a newspaper story mentioned the possibility of a prominent Hampton county family being involved with Stephens death. Randy burdock supposedly told this man to call the Highway Patrol and tell them a story that suspiciously fits into the police narrative that is supported by no evidence and that is that Stephen was hit by a car and in this episode, we're going to take you through the last few months of the initial investigation to show you where police were at when the case went cold in 2016. We highly suggest you going back and listening to episodes two, four and nine for this one to make a whole lot more sense. In our last episode on the Stephen Smith investigation, we tease an interview between Corporal Michael E Duncan of the Highway Patrol and Nick Ginn of the Hampton Police Department.

Corp Michael Duncan 05:17

This case and we've got you know, I'll go over a little bit about, we've got some information, you know about certain things. And this was a tip that was given to us from Maleev. A Patrick

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Wilson. It's a he said she said deal that we we've gathered that information so far. And I believe this come from, is it a Deron? Williams? Is that Is that correct?

Nick Ginn 05:45

Is Darrell.

Corp Michael Duncan 05:46

Darrell Williams? Okay Do you know Darrell?

Nick Ginn 05:51

Yes, He is my stepdad technically,

Corp Michael Duncan 05:56

Okay. All right. And supposedly, Patrick Wilson told him this information about

Nick Ginn 06:05

Right uh, Darrell was dating Patrick's mama. Okay. So Patrick's kind of looked at him as a father figure. You know, where to pass how exactly to how long they've been. They were together. But basically, he's just looking at him as a father figure. He came fishing and hunting and things like that. So So

Corp Michael Duncan 06:25

Okay, Can you can you tell me what was told to you? We've tried to get in touch with Patrick. But he you know, he's kind of avoiding the the call the contact at all

Nick Ginn 06:36

Right. Basically, Darrell call me and he said look, he said, this was what I was told. He said, Patrick, came over here to the house. He said he told me that Sean Connolly was drunk and hit something. He said he went back the next day to see what it was he had hit. And he seen a lot of police out there. So he talked to one of the cops and then he had left. And then he learned, I guess, by media, that somebody had been killed in that same area. That's why the police were so with him tell him he said that. Shawn called him crying, saying that that's what had happened. And then Patrick was telling Darrell, and Darrell told me that Patrick was crying telling him and after he got finished telling the story, he walked outside his house and threw up.

Mandy Matney 07:40

here, Nick Ginn, who just won a special election in September 2021 for a seat on the Varnville city council, by the way, is telling Duncan that Patrick Wilson threw up after he told a stepdad that his friend hit Stephen with this truck. Why would a teenage boy throw up after telling that story?

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Corp Michael Duncan 07:59

Okay.

Nick Ginn 08:01

He said, Nick, he said, this is just me thinking he said, but I think I think that Patrick was waiting. He said, Why else would he throw up and get all upset like that? Because somebody else had done something.

Corp Michael Duncan 08:16

Right. Right. Did he go into any detail about how it happened? And the you know, I mean,

Nick Ginn 08:23

Supposedly he had, he had fixed his mirror he had patched at one of the mirrors up on the truck.

Corp Michael Duncan 08:32

Okay, all right. I've pulled all of all of his records, and I was looking to see, you know, what kind of vehicle they had. And I didn't know if they just he described basically how we hit him or what, you know, what happened.

Nick Ginn 08:45

There was supposedly the mirror. And I've got, I don't know, I got Mitch. Think I sent him the pictures of the truck. And he's driving and he would have been driving at night.

Corp Michael Duncan 09:01

Okay. All right.

Nick Ginn 09:04

But I'm pretty sure I want to say less than everything to Mitch.

Corp Michael Duncan 09:08

Mitch?

Nick Ginn 09:09

Mitch Altman,

Corp Michael Duncan 09:11

Okay, Okay

Nick Ginn 09:15

Because he, you know, him and my brother and all grew up. And you know, he and I are pretty good friends and I didn't know exactly who to contact. So my first thing when I got off

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

the phone with Darrell was all right, Mitch. Popped in my head, Highway Patrol so I called Mitch. And he said he would get that information where it needed to go.

Corp Michael Duncan 09:36

All right. And so basically, that just your your knowledge of it is, is is a third party is from what Darrell is telling you.

Nick Ginn 09:47

Right. He said he was concerned and somebody needed to know because somebody's lost a you know, a son and stuff like that. And he said, this is something which you don't just to sit on. If you know something thing about it. So

Corp Michael Duncan 10:00

When did When did he come to you about this? I mean, we got this. We got this tip we got this back on December the ninth and we've had, you know, a couple of people out looking for for Patrick. But then my thought was, well, let's just you know, let's see what what was told from someone else. But when did he come to you about that? Do you recall made kimbos? December the 9th?

Nick Ginn 10:28

It's been a minute longer three weeks.

Corp Michael Duncan 10:33

All right. And

Nick Ginn 10:35

I found out it was Wednesday, December 9 at 7:58am..

Corp Michael Duncan 10:39

All right December 9th, I'm going to write it down now

Nick Ginn 10:42

that's what that's when I sent it to Mitch I told him he needed to contact me ASAP.

Mandy Matney 10:46

Wednesday, December 9, would be just two days after the Highway Patrol received a tip that Murdaugh was involved in Stephen Smith's death. Keep in mind, Duncan is saying here that he received this tip from Trooper Mitch Altman on December 9, and according to the Highway Patrol's case file, they essentially sat on it until Proctor got word of this tip and tried to track down Patrick Wilson on December 18. That's 11 days where it looks like nothing happened. Why would it take so long for them to investigate this tip? And how hard would it be to track down a teenager in a small town?

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Corp Michael Duncan 11:24

Okay, all right As far as Patrick goes, What do you feel about Patrick? I mean, what kind of? I mean, what kind of person you think he's, you know,

Nick Ginn 11:38

As far as, as far as a good hearted person I think he is. But I think he's a he's a little

Corp Michael Duncan 11:46

Is he shady? I'm not trying to be. I'm not trying to be, you know, put words in your mouth don't get me wrong. But that's the best way I kind of describe people sometimes when

Nick Ginn 11:56

Well, that was the word I had in my mind, but I was trying to think of a better way to put it. His dad is not his real dad is not a outstanding society member

Corp Michael Duncan 12:10

Been arrested before?

Nick Ginn 12:12

Yeah He's into drugs and stuff like that. So well you think you think Patrick has, does he have a criminal background as far as that goes as well? I mean, only reason why im asking.

Corp Michael Duncan 12:16

Nick Ginn 12:24

He was charged, he was charged with attempted murder. But I'm not exactly sure what the circumstances behind that was. I want to say that that was one of them times that they may have charged him a higher charge to work their way down.

Corp Michael Duncan 12:38

Yes. I understand.

Nick Ginn 12:42

But uh, I mean, any time I have any dealings with him. I mean, he's very respectful and stuff like that. But he is a little a little shady. That's probably the perfect word to use.

Mandy Matney 12:55

There is no record that the Highway Patrol looked into Patrick Wilson's quote unquote shady past, but I did. Wilson was charged with three counts of attempted murder on April 17 2015. According to arrest warrants in the case, Wilson got into an argument with a man and fired his gun at the man's car, which had two passengers inside of it. This incident happened on Prince William Road in Brunson, South Carolina. Here is a clip from the 911 call.

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Speaker 13:26

This fella did a little bit of work for us. We told him we'd have his money Monday he has now follow us around he just fired a gun and shot it off. And now I'm trying to follow him to get his tag number ma'am, he's driving a Chevy 45 Chevrolet it's David Wilson's son. We had pulled over Prince William church here because he was following us he wanted he wanted his money. We told the child to call us Monday we would have a check Monday. And he wanted he wanted to sit there and argue we pull off as we pull off he sits in the road and Firestone as it hits the sign right beside us. Okay, is he still there? Where y'all are at or is he going? No, he turned around ma'am he is out of sight.

Mandy Matney 14:09

According to the arrest warrants, all victims were afraid for their lives. John Connolly. The person who Patrick Wilson allegedly later claimed hit Stephen with his truck was in the car with Wilson when the shooting occurred. According to his witness statement. Connolly told Police that Patrick Wilson grabbed his gun and shot at the sign after he argued with a man. The case file includes multiple witness statements and a photo of the bullet launched into the crossroad sign a Hampton county grand jury later indicted Wilson on attempted murder and assault and battery in August 2015. While Wilson was out on bond the family he allegedly shot at multiple harassment complaints against Wilson and guess who Patrick Wilson's attorney was Cory Fleming Cory Fleming's name comes up a lot throughout the Murdaugh murder saga for a reminder at Cory Fleming is a close friend of the Murdaugh family and was an attorney in Beaufort, South Carolina. In 2018. Fleming represented Gloria Satterfield's family in a very botched wrongful death settlement against Alex Murdaugh in 2019. Fleming temporarily represented Connor Cook in the boat crash incident that killed Mallory Beach and two recent lawsuits accused Corey Fleming of misconduct. In the separate incidents. Fleming just got his law license temporarily revoked for his alleged involvement in the Satterfield case. In February 2018. Wilson's indictments were all a normal process, which means that the 14th circuit solicitor's office where Alex Murdaugh worked as a part time solicitor decided to not prosecute Wilson's charges and the charges were dropped. But this looks like a clear scenario of a violent crime with victims who appeared to cooperate that the 14th circuit no process without a plea deal and Wilson's connection isn't the only link to the powerful family of Hampton County. Two lawsuits were filed against Sean Connolly by the Murdaugh law firm in the year after Stephen died on August 7 2015. Randy Murdaugh filed a motor vehicle accident lawsuit against Connolly on behalf of his client Christopher Still that lawsuit was dismissed in November 2016. Perry Buckner, a well known friend of the Murdaughs was the judge in that case, and on May 17 2016, Neal Algor, who is an attorney at PMPED, the Murdaugh family law firm filed a motor vehicle accident lawsuit against Sean Connolly. That lawsuit was also dismissed in September 2016. So yes, both Patrick Wilson and Sean Connolly have a number of connections to the Murdaugh family and their law firm. At the very least the fact that we found two teenagers in this investigation who were sued multiple times by the Murdaugh law firm for car accidents shows how far reaching the Murdaugh's power was in a place like Hampton County, even teenagers without a penny to spare. Were being sued by this powerful law firm. And then we have to think of the worst case scenarios. What if these lawsuits and charges were used as leverage? We have found more troubling information about the Patrick Wilson Sean Connelly, connection to the 2021 SLED investigation, and we will get into that later. But for now, we're gonna get through the case files and answer the question what happened to the Stephen Smith investigation before it went cold? Which brings us to December 29, 2015. Now the Highway Patrol apparently didn't do any follow ups with Sean Connelly or Patrick Wilson. According to the case file. There's no record of the Highway Patrol speaking with either one of them. And really there was very little movement with the case before it went cold. But on December 29 2015, I noticed something a video related to this case that was taken by Trooper G N Hoffman was disposed of why would the Highway Patrol destroy any evidence in this case in December 2015 when the case was obviously running out of leads and nowhere close to being solved. According to the case, file progress and the investigations slowed to a snail's pace in 2016. On January 26 2016, Todd Proctor of the Highway Patrol got a search warrant for Stephens phone at SELCO partnerships slash Verizon Wireless all had David read that search warrant.

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

DAVID MOSES 18:49

Description of property saw the target phone is to be identified as having the number of 84360 5x x x x and is further known as target phone. Any and all incoming and outgoing historical call data to include cell sites text messages to include content, identify cell site information, subscriber and phone toll information to include but not limited to target number, name, number, account status, type of phone, subscriber name, published status, service address, billing address other numbers, former service number UFMI and IMMSI numbers for each call from June 9, 2015 to July 9, 2015. Any and all information submitted pursuant to this search warrant shall be in electronic format unless otherwise requested reason for affiant's belief that the property sought is on the subject premises. The owner of the above described cell phone was fatally wounded in an incident on or about July 8 2015 on Sandy Run Road within the county of Hampton, South Carolina. The uses of the phone before the incident are pertinent to the ongoing investigation. The individual was found deceased in the middle of the roadway with severe head trauma. The investigation has led to this individual not being struck by a vehicle and possible foul play. The information on the phone would help determine who the victim had contact with prior to the events that led to his death.

Mandy Matney 20:34

So why did the Highway Patrol take so long to get the search warrant, Stephens phone would hold so many answers to this investigation. Who did he speak to last when he was coming home from school in Orangeburg on July 7 2015? Did his car actually break down? Where was he? Who was he with? The Highway Patrol should not have taken six months to get the search warrant. They should have tried to get this immediately. And there's no signs of that, and if the South Carolina Highway Patrol's investigation led to the fact that Stephen wasn't killed by a car and that says that in the search warrant. Why were they still investigating this case? They don't investigate murders. SLED investigates murders in South Carolina. Why didn't they at least attempt to get this investigation to SLED back in 2016 when they knew that their investigation was not into a vehicle accident, and this document in January 2016 is the last mention of Stephens phone in the case files. According to the case files there was no movement whatsoever in the investigation until June 2016 When Trooper JD James of the Highway Patrol interviewed Dontario Aiken for a reminder the Highway Patrol received a tip on December 7 2018. That said Dontario Aiken along with another black male and another white male listed as Murdaugh in the investigation file. Were the ones involved in Stephen Smith's death.

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Trooper JD James 22:11

June 13 2016 time now approximately 2:04pm starts in my case number of sealed as 06215 And is that heard in Hampton County. 2015 currently speaking with an Dontario Aiken, we're on just off a SC three and by the train tracks here and build off. Lance Corporal Hoffman's with me Can you tell me your name? Just for the record.

Dontario Aiken 22:42

Dontario Aiken

Trooper JD James 22:43

Okay, anybody else live here with you?

Dontario Aiken 22:45

My mom and my stepdad.

Trooper JD James 22:57

And um I believe it's July 8. Sunday night Sunday morning.

Mandy Matney 23:03

James apparently isn't too keen on details in the case because Stephen was killed on a Wednesday. Granted police can lie during interviews to trick people but why would he lie about that?

Trooper JD James 23:15

Tell me what he knew about this about what happened to Stephen.

Dontario Aiken 23:18

I really don't know too much about it I mean. I heard of it. He got killed. I never heard a word who?

Trooper JD James 23:26

How? How did he get killed?

Dontario Aiken 23:28

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Somebody I know went to school me and Facebook. Social media pretty much

Trooper JD James 23:32

Really? Who was that?

Dontario Aiken 23:33

Uh I can't remember who posted it I remember seeing it on Facebook. Saw my page on Facebook we just be scrolling and somebody was like rest in peace Stephen. and I was like Stephen then I see somebody had a picture, and I was like oh that kid used to go to school with me. Sad that he had died.

Trooper JD James 23:54

Does it say how he died?

Dontario Aiken 23:59

Somebody said he got hit by a car or something.

Trooper JD James 24:01

That's what that's you heard? He didn't get hit by a car.

Dontario Aiken 24:04

He didn't? Yeah

Trooper JD James 24:13

Someone murdered him

Mandy Matney 24:15

So I have to say this again. If Stephen was murdered, then why is the Highway Patrol investigating this case still? The highway patrol specializes in accident reconstruction. They are not equipped for murder investigations. And this is so obvious during this interview

Trooper JD James 24:38

That's why I'm saying for what why would somebody do that to him?

Dontario Aiken 24:46

I have no idea, He didn't bother anybody I don't think. He was, I played football and he was our trainer. Too much. I didn't even see him talk that much. I only saw him every now and then at school but I never saw him outside.

Mandy Matney 25:06

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Here, Ontario is telling James that he never really talked to Stephen and that Stephen was their trainer on the football team in high school. He said Stephen didn't talk a lot. And he wondered why anybody would kill him.

Trooper JD James 25:19

And when did you hear about his death?

Dontario Aiken 25:21

When I got home.

Trooper JD James 25:23

When was that?

Dontario Aiken 25:24

Friday, Friday, Sunday morning, something like that? No, like the weekly event and I heard about so I came back home and I heard about here's happened on the weekend. Yeah, I'm saying Yeah. What were you doing that weekend?

Trooper JD James 25:34

Dontario Aiken 25:44

Most of the time I come home or I work, I was doing that, I used to work on the weekend too.

Mandy Matney 25:49

James asked Aiken several questions about what he was doing on the weekend Stephen died. But again, Stephen didn't die in a weekend. And he brings this up over and over again, asking him basically about an alibi for an insignificant weekend, almost a year after this event occurred.

Trooper JD James 26:07

Did you ever go out to parties out in the country? School meets?

Dontario Aiken 26:14

I ain't gone to those in so long I don't really do those things.

Trooper JD James 26:16

I mean, that weekend what where you doing over the weekend. But you said you're off work on the weekend.

Dontario Aiken 26:24

I do side work on the weekends.

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Trooper JD James 26:26

Where at?

Dontario Aiken 26:28

People houses. Painting somebody's house I used to go to Augustus. Sometimes, Deonte I work in his house all weekend.

Mandy Matney 26:46

It is highly unlikely that Aiken or anyone could have randomly recalled where he was on an uneventful weekend 11 months prior. And again, the weekend doesn't even matter because Stephen wasn't killed on the weekend. But the investigator doesn't know that and he just keeps asking about it. He eventually switches the subject and starts asking about the Murdaugh's

Trooper JD James 27:09

You uh, you went to school some kids with the last name Murdaugh?

Dontario Aiken 27:14

Murdaugh? I know a girl.

Trooper JD James 27:26

You know the boys?

Dontario Aiken 27:28

Wait a minute there was one, one he graduated with me.

Trooper JD James 27:32

Right You hang out with him?

Dontario Aiken 27:37

Never did

Trooper JD James 27:42

Do you ever go to any his parties anytime?

Dontario Aiken 27:45

No sir

Mandy Matney 27:47

When the interview starts to turn serious, it becomes clear that James is treating Aiken like a person of interest in this investigation. But then again, I have to say the cops can lie in these types of interviews.

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

Trooper JD James 28:02

Do you have an attorney?

Dontario Aiken 28:03

No, Why would I need one?

Trooper JD James 28:09

Here's the thing, your name has been brought up? You know, as linked as linked in his death? So I mean, if there's anything that you know, that you want to say about it, you know, I'd hate to see. See you go down with it with whoever killed this for

Dontario Aiken 28:27

You mean he was laid out? I heard I heard he was hit by a car and that was it.

Trooper JD James 28:45

Well he wasn't. So on. We're going around and interviewing everybody that that may have had linked based on what everybody's talking about. All right, your name got brought up. That's what I'm saying. I'm not calling you. I'm not saying you're guilty. Nothing right now. All right. But if you know something, or something comes up in the future, is that because this is by no means a closed investigation. Yeah you know what I'm saying?

Dontario Aiken 29:14

I know what your saying.

Trooper JD James 29:15

Yeah. So you know, if something comes up in the near future, you know, and we have leads that go on and we discover new information about case. Even if you didn't do it, I mean, if you were tied in with it and didn't cooperate with us, you know, to get in trouble. You know, I'm saying this is pretty bad.

Dontario Aiken 29:37

Yeah this is serious because that's somebodies life.

Mandy Matney 29:41

And that's it. That's the end of the investigation files. What kind of an investigation ends in an interview with a cop saying this is by no means a closed investigation. In a best case scenario, they gave up and stopped caring about Stephen Smith's death. Maybe they realized that they were in way over their heads trying to solve a murder as accident experts, but why didn't they give the case to SLED at the time? And then we have to consider the worst case scenario? Did someone powerful interfere with this investigation and stop the wheels of justice from proceeding? We don't have the answers as to why this investigation ended. But we will find out and we would most definitely hope that the South Carolina Law Enforcement Division is now conducting its investigation. In this case, as if all of the eyes in the world will be poring through these case files later, they should know that I won't give up on this case, no matter how long it takes, they should know that sunlight will shine on those case files in they don't want to look like the Highway Patrol. We have found more information about the direction that this case is heading and about Sandy Smith's attorney, but we're going to get into all of that in a later episode. For those of y'all who can't wait, subscribe to fitsnews.com. Which brings me to some really good news. The Murdaugh Murders Podcast team is expanding. I have awesome reinforcement coming in to help us expose the truth wherever it leads in the Murdaugh Murder saga. And I can't wait to tell you all about it. In the next episode. I want to end the episode by saying thank you to every person who has supported us on this journey for almost five months now. There were a lot of times this summer when I wanted to give up on the podcast and your support kept me going now that we're expanding our team. I'm excited about so many new episodes that we have in store, including one on this crazy jellyfish Gambit that David is super excited about.

EPISODE 17: Who killed Stephen Smith? Part Four

DAVID MOSES 31:44

Sure am.

Mandy Matney 31:44

Also Happy Veterans Day and thank you to all who have served including my grandfather, a world war two veteran who turns 97 years old this week. Happy birthday, Grandpa Rocky, a special thanks to Chris with hooked audio. The team at UTA and all of our sponsors also the standing for Stephen event was a wild success.
