Please see the attached Order Denying Bond without prejudice and Order Denying Transfer of case to family court.

As you can see the Order Denying Bond is without prejudice. Brad Hutto has since requested a Bond Hearing to be heard Monday (August 5, 2019). The hearing will be held at 2:00 pm at the Dorchester County Courthouse. I would like to schedule a meeting for 1:00 pm at the Dorchester Courthouse with the Bess Family before the scheduled 2:00 pm hearing. Can you please contact them and find out their availability for Monday afternoon?

Everyone:

There's been a little confusion with the prelims for Bowen Turner (because of the two cases in two different counties) and they have been continued a few times. To clarify:

A prelim is scheduled for August 15, 2019 at 10:00 am in Bamberg. This is for Dallas Stoller's case.

A prelim is scheduled for August 28, 2019 at 10:00 am in Orangeburg. This is for Chloe Bess's case.

Also, I attempted to attached the order in yesterday's email, but several people said they didn't get it – it's attached again now – let me know if it still doesn't go.

If the prelim dates change again, I will notify everyone.

Sarah,

So your office is aware, Brad has requested that Bowen Turner and his Grandmother be able to stay with his parents for the next 48 hours due to Hurricane Dorian. Brad stated Bowen's parents have a generator at their house whereas his Grandmother does not. If his Grandmother's power goes out he will be unable to charge his GPS monitor. I told Brad our office did not object to the temporary stay so long as the GPS bonding company is aware of the temporary move.

All:

Brad Hutto has requested to continue the Bowen Turner prelim that was scheduled for this Friday at 11:00 am in Orangeburg. The primary basis for his request was that we still have one outstanding report from SLED we are waiting on (that I know Katie has been working diligently on getting out) and he doesn't want to waive the hearing without confirming he has all of the discovery. Having said that, I believe he is ultimately going to waive the prelim because he doesn't want any more publicity about the case and, frankly, doesn't want to antagonize the various families any further.

I intend to sit down with Katie once she has told me we have everything we are getting and will make sure we have everything she thinks we have. From there, I will get with Brad (or his paralegal) and make sure they have everything too. I suspect that he will then waive the prelim and we can move on to presenting the cases to the Grand Juries. The Bamberg case is ready to be presented, but we don't have another GJ there until the end of November. I am pretty certain the Orangeburg GJ meets once a month, so getting that case indicted shouldn't be an issue as far as timing goes.

Let me know if there are any questions about the preliminary hearing being postponed. Otherwise, we are going to TRY to get everything in place so it can be waived before it gets rescheduled.

David and Michael,

Rumors have gotten back to me that Bowen Turner may be violating his bond. Apparently he's been seen on social media with friends, etc.

How do we check his monitor? I'm going to try to run down the social media aspects and see if I can locate and confirm it, but I think that his monitor to be checked ASAP.

Let me know if it's something I need to do or how I can help.

The case was put on the Bamberg Preliminary Hearing roster in error.

I contacted S/A McAllister when I received your email and we are still waiting on one report that is in the SLED review process at the moment and a supplement to another report. Once we have ALL of the discovery and it has been released to Brad Hutto, it is my understanding that he intends to waive the prelims in both counties and we will proceed to the Grand Jury, but it isn't happening tomorrow.

So there is no confusion, there will NOT be a preliminary hearing in the Bamberg case tomorrow, November 21, 2019.

COUNTY OF ORANGEBURG

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

v.

BOWEN GRAY TURNER,

Defendant.

IN THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

ORDER GRANTING BOND

2019A381020009

CLERK OF COURT
ORANGEBURG, SC

2019 AUG -6 AM 10:35

FILED FOR RECORD
CLERK OF COURT
ORANGEBURG, SC

This matter came before me August 5, 2019, for hearing on the Defendant's motion for bond. The hearing was held at the Dorchester County Courthouse. The Defendant Bowen Gray Turner was present for the hearing and represented by his attorney, C. Bradley Hutto. The State was represented at the hearing by Second Circuit Deputy Solicitor David Miller¹, who opposed the request for bond. The victim's family members were present at the hearing and were represented by Sarah A. Ford of the South Carolina Victim Assistance Network. After hearing the parties' arguments, considering the information presented, and the requirements of S.C. Code Ann. §17-15-30, this court grants the motion for bond as outlined below.

The Defendant was arrested June 12, 2019, and charged with criminal sexual conduct, first degree on the above referenced warrant. The incident leading to the charge is alleged to have occurred in the early morning hours of June 2, 2019, in Orangeburg County, South Carolina. On June 2, 2019, and at the time of his arrest, the Defendant was sixteen years old.

Bond was denied by the magistrate because the Defendant was on bond for another violent offense in Bamberg County at the time of his arrest for this offense. See S.C. Code Ann. 17-15-55(c). Pursuant to the statute, a bond hearing was conducted before the Honorable Casey Manning on July 9, 2019. Judge Manning took the motion under advisement and subsequently denied the motion for bond without prejudice by order dated July 29, 2019. The Defendant now renews his motion for bond alleging a change in circumstance exists because he has now turned seventeen and will be held in the Orangeburg-Calhoun Regional Detention Center to await trial instead of the Department of Juvenile Justice if he is not granted a bond on this charge. This Court has been provided with a copy of the incident report for this incident and the previous incident in Bamberg County. The Court notes the Defendant is a lawful United States citizen and does NOT appear in the state gang database maintained by the State Law enforcement Division (SLED).

CLERK OF COURT

The Defendant has significant family ties to the community and has no prior criminal convictions. He has no history of flight to avoid criminal prosecution and prior to his arrest on this charge he was living with his parents. The Defendant was arrested in Bamberg County on January 29, 2019 and charged with criminal sexual conduct in the first degree for an incident that is alleged to have occurred in Bamberg County on or about October 7, 2018. Bond was set by the magistrate in the amount of $10,000 and several special conditions were ordered, including GPS monitoring. On April 11, 2019, attorneys for the Defendant made a motion to remove the GPS monitoring requirement of the bond. The Honorable Thomas L. Hughston, Jr. granted the defense motion by order dated April 22, 2019. This incident allegedly occurred only forty-one (41) later and mirrors the allegations of the Bamberg incident.

Based on the foregoing, I find and rule as follows:

1. The defendant shall be released upon the execution of an appearance bond, with surety, in the sum of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS ($100,000.00), with the option to post five percent (5%) cash with the clerk of court, to be signed by a licensed professional bondsman or such other person or persons owning sufficient property to secure such sum, or other good and sufficient surety as approved by this Court, with such bond being returnable on demand to the Court of General Sessions for Orangeburg County, South Carolina.

2. The defendant's release shall be subject to the following special conditions in addition to the usual and ordinary conditions of release:
 - a. HOME DETENTION the Defendant must be at home between the hours of 7:00 PM and 7:00 AM; the Defendant may ONLY leave the home between the hours of 7:00 AM and 7:00 PM for attorney visits, court appearances, mental health counseling, and medical emergencies;
 - b. HOME DETENTION shall include GPS monitoring at the defendant's expense, and the Defendant shall not be released from custody until the GPS monitor has been affixed;
 - c. A copy of this Order shall be provided by the bond court to the company retained to electronically monitor the HOME DETENTION provisions of this order at the time the electronic monitor is affixed.
 - d. ANY AND ALL violations of the conditions of HOME DETENTION shall be reported to the Second Circuit Solicitor's Office or the Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office within 24 hours of the violation. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENT WILL SUBJECT THE ELECTRONIC MONITORING COMPANY TO POTENTIAL CRIMINAL AND CIVIL SANCTIONS FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.
 - e. While subject to the conditions of HOME DETENTION, the Defendant must live at his Grandmother's residence located at 1104 Mobile Street, Orangeburg, SC 29115.
 - f. While subject to HOME DETENTION, the Defendant must be physically monitored by his parents Jennifer and Walt Turner, his grandmother, Cheryl Baugh, or by his aunt, Theresa Bramblett, but the Defendant is not to be unaccompanied by at least one of the aforementioned family members at any time.
 - g. While subject to HOME DETENTION, the Defendant is prohibited from having visitors in his home that are not related to him by blood or marriage.
 - h. The Defendant shall have NO CONTACT, directly or indirectly, with potential witnesses or with the victim or the victim's family. This NO CONTACT provision shall require the Defendant to stay a minimum of 250 yards from the victim and a minimum of one-quarter mile from the victim's residence at all times.

- i. While on bond, the Defendant must enroll in and make adequate academic progress toward completion of his high school graduation requirements.
- j. Aside from required internet access to complete academic requirements as outlined above, the Defendant is to have NO internet ^{or via or computer} or phone access and is prohibited from any and all social media activity. _{Mc}

ADDITIONALLY, IT IS ORDERED:

1. If the Defendant is observed violating any term or condition of this Order, any law enforcement agency is hereby authorized by this Order to immediately take the Defendant into custody and to hold the Defendant in custody pending a hearing on the alleged violation(s) of this Order.
2. Any magistrate judge for Orangeburg County is authorized to complete the necessary paperwork to allow the Defendant to garner his release on bond in accordance with the terms of this Order.
3. Any necessary paperwork to be signed by the Defendant to post this bond may be signed by the Defendant's father, Walt Turner on behalf of the Defendant.
4. Until such time as this original order can be filed with the Orangeburg County Clerk of Court, scanned or facsimile copies of this order shall be treated as original.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

Hi David,

I'm in a meeting right now. I do rep both. However, we object to any change in the bond conditions without a hearing where the victims can be heard pursuant to the SC Constitution, Art. I, Sec. 24 (A)(4). I'd be happy to discuss this and Chloe's residence further over the phone. Unfortunately, I'm tied up this afternoon. Let me know when you have some time next week.

Have a great weekend!

Your Honor:

You may recall that Mr. Turner was required to live at his grandmother's house while on bond because of the proximity between his parents' residence and the victim's residence. I have attached the original order for your review.

After Mr. Hutto reached out to me about the requested modification, I emailed Sarah Ford to confirm the victim in case 2019A3810200093 had relocated out of state. You may remember Ms. Ford has made an appearance on behalf of the victims in both cases currently pending against Bowen Turner. I have copied her on this email. In response to my email to her, Ms. Ford wrote back to inform me she objects to "any change in the bond conditions without a hearing where the victims can be heard pursuant to the SC Constitution, Art. I, Sec. 24 (A)(4)."

To be perfectly clear, Mr. Hutto did not misstate anything in his letter to the Court. When I spoke to him by phone, I told him I saw no reason to object to the modification of bond as requested, provided the victim no longer lived in close proximity to his client's parents. However, given Ms. Ford's objection, it appears that we may need to have a hearing on the requested modification at this point.

Hello David,
I'm reaching out to you on behalf of [REDACTED], mother of the victim in this case ([REDACTED]). After sifting through her issues with the case, and speaking with Brenda at your office, I think the main issue for her moving forward is communication.

Here is the solution myself and Brenda came up with: I'm going to speak with [REDACTED] about scheduling a time to come to your office to meet with Brenda face to face to discuss the case. I think that personal interaction will go a long way (if she will follow through). And I will ask [REDACTED] to not "call around" and talk to different people associated with the case. I think if she makes Brenda her main contact the interactions will be more streamlined and fruitful.

I am happy to facilitate the passage of information as well. If you want to give me status updates to pass along to [REDACTED] I will be happy to do so. If you need help communicating with her along the way I'm happy to do that as well. I'll help in any way I can.

If you have any questions or concerns you are more than welcome to contact me. My office number is below, my cell is [REDACTED]

v.

BOWEN GRAY TURNER,

IN THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

ORDER DENYING BOND WITHOUT PREJUDICE

2019A3810200093

2019 JUL 30 AM 11:48
RECORDED

This matter came before me on July 9, 2019, for a Motion to Set Bond in the above matter. Defendant Bowen Gray Turner was present and represented by his attorney, C. Bradley Dutton. The State was represented by Second Circuit Assistant Solicitor Michael Emmer. The victim's father was also present in the court. Defendant was arrested on June 12, 2019, and charged with Criminal Sexual Conduct, First Degree (Warrant No. 2019A3810200093) from an incident that occurred on or about June 2, 2019, in Orangeburg County, South Carolina.

The Solicitor presented the Court with the facts of the alleged incident, the circumstances of Defendant's prior arrest and bond for a Criminal Sexual Conduct, First Degree (Warrant No. 2019A0510100019), arising out of Bamberg County, and argued for the denial of bond. The victim's father on behalf of victim also requested that bond be denied. The Defense presented facts arguing for why bond should be granted to include the Defendant's lack of prior record, age of sixteen (16) years, and residence with his parents. Defense also argued Defendant was not a flight based on his prior history of appearing for scheduled Court appearances. I have reviewed the doctor's assessment and adopt his recommendations for GPS monitoring, curfew, home schooling and counseling.

I am preparing the order. I took lots of notes but need to ask this question. Mr. Miller, your involvement was short at the hearing. I know that earlier you did not oppose the change but I cannot recall and do not see in my notes. What precisely was your position, if any, at the hearing? Thank you. I do want to issue this ruling today. Thanks to all. George M

We can find a time one afternoon the week of July 20 to make things work. I have included Katie on this so she can chime in if she wants to join the videoconference.

As far as the case being put on the docket, aside from the "pilot jury trial" the week of August 3 in Laurens County, I honestly do not anticipate another jury trial being held in South Carolina in 2020. I want to be ready to go when we get the opportunity, but I don't think it is imminent.

Hi David,

I spoke with Dallas, and she is prepping to move into an apartment next week. Would it be possible for us to have a zoom meeting the week of July 20th? Dallas said afternoons work best for her. Let me know what day works best for you, and I can handle setting up the meeting, if you'd like.

Also, any idea on a time frame to place the case on the docket?

Have a happy 4th! Stay safe!

So we aren't back to normal yet, but I think we are as close to it as we can expect to be for a while. Hopefully we can make decent use of the time so we aren't overwhelmed when we do get back in the courtroom.

Brad Hutto's office contact me and said that Chloe Bess had moved to [REDACTED] (not sure if it was with her parents or if she went for school or what the circumstances are). They are asking that Turner's bond be modified to allow him to live with his parents since the only reason he was living with his grandmother was because of the proximity between his house and the Bess residence. If Chloe has moved, I don't have any objection to the modification of the bond they are requesting, but I wanted to reach out to see if you know anything about the circumstances of her going to [REDACTED]. The first we heard of it was from Mr. Hutto's office.

Hi David,

I'm being pulled in this case no matter what it seems! Oy! Can you tell me anything about the victims being named by a Bamberg blogger and the hearing link being posted all over Facebook? I'm trying to figure out what's going on to keep the victims involved. Understandably, we've got a very concerned Mama who is trying to protect her kids. I'm hoping you can shed some light on this.

Give me a call if you prefer. It may be easier to discuss.

Also, we need to catch up re: [REDACTED] investigation. I'm around all day.

Thanks so much!

Crickets? If it's being prosecuted or not, the family deserves to know.

Let's meet either way and get it done. Thursday at 3pm? That works well for me.

No decision has been made about prosecuting the case. There is no reason for any meeting until a decision is made. You will be informed as soon as that happens.

Well, the one good thing is you were just ignoring the emails, and you haven't fallen ill with covid, David.

The bad thing is this family requested this investigation be reopened back in August 2019, after somewhat questionable reasons encouraging them to not proceed. SLED wrapped in June of 2020. And this is November 10, 2020. We're coming up on 3 years since the incident date. This family isn't looking for a crystal 3 year anniversary platter. They're looking for justice for their daughter. And you're the only man they can look to to try to get that, David. I've done everything I can to explain how things take time and investigations are slow and there are always delays and "I've been in David's shoes," and yada yada yada. And at this point, I barely believe it myself. These are good people who have been more than patient who have placed their trust in the system. And they're understandably about to crawl out of their skin and want to give up. But their main focus is on justice for their child.

Please give them the respect and courtesy of fully considering this case and prosecuting this matter.

I look forward to hearing from you soon,
Sarah

We have one term left in Bamberg this year (in November). In theory, we don't HAVE to try the Bamberg case first, but Brad Hutto has protection indefinitely because he is on the redistricting committee. I am guessing that will be the case until they go back in session and then he'll be protected until next August.

I don't believe there is a realistic chance of getting the case resolved, but I continue to discuss the case with Hutto every time I see him. When we last spoke (at a preliminary hearing on another case), he claimed he wanted to get something done with it, but he apparently doesn't want to try it and he knows I am not going to dismiss it.

I wish I had something more definite, but that's about all I can tell you for now.

Hi David!

I hope you're doing well! I'm sure you're looking forward to a long weekend, as I am. I wanted to check in and see if y'all had any ideas on when the above case would be tried. I know scheduling has been difficult this year. Period. But even more so with Brad's legislative protection. Any idea I can give to the victims would be helpful.

Take care,

David –

I got a phone call from Chole Bess late last night – she was talking to a friend and was told that Bowen Turner has a cell phone. He says that he has been traveling to bars in Beaufort, drinking and using cocaine. He said he had been in a bar fight and is sleeping with random bartenders.

Unless, there is a bond change that I do not know about having a cell phone is a violation of his bond. There is a witness I'd like to go speak to about this – she allegedly has had direct contact with Turner by phone.

I wanted to check his bond conditions first, before I go making waves. Can you get me a copy of the current bond conditions?

The motion to revoke is based on repeated violations. We were able to get them confirmed through the GPS monitoring company and a LOT of work by S/A McCallister.

I'm hoping we have enough now that the Judge will see this wasn't a one-time slip up and that Turner's parents are not, in fact, monitoring him. I'd love to figure out a way to convince Judge Dennis to have him drug tested, because I'm sure he wouldn't pass. But frankly, if the Judge won't revoke him based on the information we are presenting him with, then he wouldn't revoke because of a failed drug test either.

Thanks for the update, David. I think we could just meet in Bamberg, if that works for you on the 1st?

The [REDACTED] family will not attend with the Stollers.

Please forward a copy of the Motion to Revoke, when you can. I know the families will wish to be present so please let me know as soon as possible regarding scheduling. The Bess Family is in Florida so that may present a slight challenge, but I'll figure out a way to get them involved - via zoom if they're unable to attend in person. Notice will be the key there.

I don't want to assume but I gather that Mr. Turner's GPS monitor places him outside of his home? Was this a repeated violation?

As always, thank you!

I just found out this morning that Solicitor Weeks will not be able to attend that meeting, so we may want to change the location. The only reason we were doing it in Aiken was so he could attend.

We will be discussing trial preparation and scheduling with Chloe and her family. As you are aware, we will have a very short window of time to get Brad Hutto into court, but at least we will have more opportunities since it is an Orangeburg case and they have a lot more terms of Court.

I didn't have anything to discuss with the [REDACTED] family, we were just wondering if they would be with the Stollers?

We are preparing a motion to revoke bond and hope to have it filed tomorrow so we can have it heard April 4. Judge Dennis will be the Judge in Orangeburg GS that week. Since the only days we can get Brad to court are Monday and Friday, if it is not heard that Monday (April 4), it might need to be heard that Friday. We are also filing a Schmerber motion that we hope to have heard the same day. The basis for the request to revoke the bond is that Turner has not complied with the conditions of house arrest.

Can you give me a heads up or give me a quick call when you can about the cases? I'd like to have an idea of where we're headed so I'll know how to prepare the families.

Thanks so much,

We are fine rescheduling the meeting with the Stoller family to a more convenient day for them. What do you think about us meeting with them after the hearing on the 4th (or whenever it gets scheduled)? My understanding is that because of his legislative protection, we can only require Sen. Hutto to appear on Monday or Friday. Because all the local Judges recused themselves, I am hopeful that we will be able to get on the docket for one of those two days. I'll confirm the date and time as soon as we have one.

Leigh and I are in the middle of a trial in Barnwell right now, but we expect to be finished early tomorrow afternoon. She's up giving her opening argument now, but I'll ask her to reply to this email when we take a break.

Hi Leigh and David,

I hope y'all are doing well. Concerning our meeting on Friday with the Stoller Family, it would be best to reschedule. They are planning to be present on Monday. Do we have a time yet for the Motion to Revoke?

Also, I understand that Leigh would like to speak with the Bess Family on Wednesday. Do you have a preference for time, Leigh?

Thank you both for all you do! Looking forward to seeing y'all soon!

Sen. Hutto:

Please find the attached notice of motion and motion to revoke the bond of Bowen Turner that is being filed this afternoon in Orangeburg County.

By copy of this email to Dep. Sol. Tommy Scott, we are asking that this motion be scheduled for hearing on MONDAY, April 4, 2022 during the regularly scheduled term of Orangeburg General Sessions. The presiding judge is scheduled to be the Honorable Markley Dennis, who I do not believe has any conflicts relating to this case. If the Monday date will not work for everyone, I respectfully request that the motion be scheduled for hearing on FRIDAY, April 8, 2022.

Please advise the most convenient time to have the motion heard and we will make sure someone from our office is available to argue the motion.

State v. Bowen Turner
State's Motion to Revoke Bond
Exhibit A

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA

COUNTY OF ORANGEBURG

STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

v.

BOWEN GRAY TURNER,

Defendant.

IN THE COURT OF GENERAL SESSIONS

FIRST JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

ORDER GRANTING BOND

This matter came before me August 5, 2019, for hearing on the Defendant's motion for bond. The hearing was held at the Dorchester County Courthouse. The Defendant Bowen Gray Turner was present for the hearing and represented by his attorney, C. Bradley Hutto. The State was represented at the hearing by Second Circuit Deputy Solicitor David Miller<sup>1</sup>, who opposed the request for bond. The victim's family members were present at the hearing and were represented by Sarah A. Ford of the South Carolina Victim Assistance Network. After hearing the parties' arguments, considering the information presented, and the requirements of S.C. Code Ann. §17-15-30, this court grants the motion for bond as outlined below.

The Defendant was arrested June 12, 2019, and charged with criminal sexual conduct, first degree on the above referenced warrant. The incident leading to the charge is alleged to have occurred in the early morning hours of June 2, 2019, in Orangeburg County, South Carolina. On June 2, 2019, and at the time of his arrest, the Defendant was sixteen years old.

Bond was denied by the magistrate because the Defendant was on bond for another violent offense in Bamberg County at the time of his arrest for this offense. See S.C. Code Ann. 17-15-55(c). Pursuant to the statute, a bond hearing was conducted before the Honorable Casey Manning on July 9, 2019. Judge Manning took the motion under advisement and subsequently denied the motion for bond without prejudice by order dated July 29, 2019. The Defendant now renews his motion for bond alleging a change in circumstance exists because he has now turned seventeen and will be held in the Orangeburg-Calhoun Regional Detention Center to await trial instead of the Department of Juvenile Justice if he is not granted a bond on this charge. This Court has been provided with a copy of the incident report for this incident and the previous incident in Bamberg County. The Court notes the Defendant is a lawful United States citizen and does NOT appear in the state gang database maintained by the State Law enforcement Division (SLED).

The Defendant has significant family ties to the community and has no prior criminal convictions. He has no history of flight to avoid criminal prosecution and prior to his arrest on this charge he was living with his parents. The Defendant was arrested in Bamberg County on January 29, 2019 and charged with criminal sexual conduct in the first degree for an incident that is alleged to have occurred in Bamberg County on or about October 7, 2018. Bond was set by the magistrate in the amount of $10,000 and several special conditions were ordered, including GPS monitoring. On April 11, 2019, attorneys for the Defendant made a motion to remove the GPS monitoring requirement of the bond. The Honorable Thomas L. Hughston, Jr. granted the defense motion by order dated April 22, 2019. This incident allegedly occurred only forty-one (41) later and mirrors the allegations of the Bamberg incident.

Based on the foregoing, I find and rule as follows:

1. The defendant shall be released upon the execution of an appearance bond, with surety, in the sum of ONE HUNDRED THOUSAND DOLLARS ($100,000.00), with the option to post five percent (5%) cash with the clerk of court, to be signed by a licensed professional bondsman or such other person or persons owning sufficient property to secure such sum, or other good and sufficient surety as approved by this Court, with such bond being returnable on demand to the Court of General Sessions for Orangeburg County, South Carolina.

2. The defendant's release shall be subject to the following special conditions in addition to the usual and ordinary conditions of release:
  - a. HOME DETENTION the Defendant must be at home between the hours of 7:00 PM and 7:00 AM; the Defendant may ONLY leave the home between the hours of 7:00 AM and 7:00 PM for attorney visits, court appearances, mental health counseling, and medical emergencies;
  - b. HOME DETENTION shall include GPS monitoring at the defendant's expense, and the Defendant shall not be released from custody until the GPS monitor has been affixed;
  - c. A copy of this Order shall be provided by the bond court to the company retained to electronically monitor the HOME DETENTION provisions of this order at the time the electronic monitor is affixed.
  - d. ANY AND ALL violations of the conditions of HOME DETENTION shall be reported to the Second Circuit Solicitor's Office or the Orangeburg County Sheriff's Office within 24 hours of the violation. FAILURE TO COMPLY WITH THIS NOTIFICATION REQUIREMENT WILL SUBJECT THE ELECTRONIC MONITORING COMPANY TO POTENTIAL CRIMINAL AND CIVIL SANCTIONS FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT.
  - e. While subject to the conditions of HOME DETENTION, the Defendant must live at his Grandmother's residence located at 1104 Mobile Street, Orangeburg, SC 29115.
  - f. While subject to HOME DETENTION, the Defendant must be physically monitored by his parents Jennifer and Walt Turner, his grandmother, Cheryl Baugh, or by his aunt, Theresa Bramblett, but the Defendant is not to be unaccompanied by at least one of the aforementioned family members at any time.
  - g. While subject to HOME DETENTION, the Defendant is prohibited from having visitors in his home that are not related to him by blood or marriage.
  - h. The Defendant shall have NO CONTACT, directly or indirectly, with potential witnesses or with the victim or the victim's family. This NO CONTACT provision shall require the Defendant to stay a minimum of 250 yards from the victim and a minimum of one-quarter mile from the victim's residence at all times.

- i. While on bond, the Defendant must enroll in and make adequate academic progress toward completion of his high school graduation requirements.
- j. Aside from required internet access to complete academic requirements as outlined above, the Defendant is to have NO internet <sup>by via or computer</sup> or phone access and is prohibited from any and all social media activity. <sub>her</sub>

ADDITIONALLY, IT IS ORDERED:

1. If the Defendant is observed violating any term or condition of this Order, any law enforcement agency is hereby authorized by this Order to immediately take the Defendant into custody and to hold the Defendant in custody pending a hearing on the alleged violation(s) of this Order.
2. Any magistrate judge for Orangeburg County is authorized to complete the necessary paperwork to allow the Defendant to garner his release on bond in accordance with the terms of this Order.
3. Any necessary paperwork to be signed by the Defendant to post this bond may be signed by the Defendant's father, Walt Turner on behalf of the Defendant.
4. Until such time as this original order can be filed with the Orangeburg County Clerk of Court, scanned or facsimile copies of this order shall be treated as original.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

HEARING DATE: 9 MARCH 2020

ATTORNEY FOR STATE: DAVID W. MILLER

ATTORNEY FOR DEFENDANT: C. BRADLEY HUTTO

VICTIMS ATTORNEY; SARAH A. FORD

COURT REPORTER: FRANCES B. RAY

PRESIDING JUDGE: GEORGE M. McFADDIN, Jr.

(ORDER PREPARED BY JUDGE)

This matter is before me as a result of Defendant's request to modify his bond to allow him to relocate his house arrest to his parents' home. A hearing was held, without objections to venue, in Lee County, South Carolina on 9 March 2020. Defendant was present with his parents; victims were present with their parents; Assistant Solicitor David W. Miller of the Second Circuit was present; C. Bradley Hutto, Esq., was present on behalf of Defendant; and, Sarah A. Ford, Esq., was present on behalf of the victims. Regarding the named attorneys, I appreciate the very civil and respectful manner in which they treated each other and the court.

At the hearing Defendant, through his attorney Mr. Hutto, was heard. Mr. Hutto sought the amendment and offered his position concisely. The State, through Assistant Solicitor Miller, was heard, and he did not oppose the amendment. The victims were heard through Ms. Ford who stridently offered her position on behalf of the victims. Also, a parent of each victim read statements opposing the bond modifications. I took copious notes and informed those present that I would take the matter under consideration.

I preface the balance of this order by stating, as I often have, that setting or modifying the conditions of a bond is, for a judge, very often a vexing and risky endeavor. A judge is called upon by law to consider the relevant factors set by statute. Yet, in many cases judges are expected to trade the robe for a crystal ball and look into the future to predict the conduct of a defendant after bond has been set. The best and the brightest who wear the robe simply fail in that quest.

DEFENDANT'S REQUESTED MODIFICATION OF HIS BOND:

Defendant requested that his bond be modified to allow him to reside under house arrest at his parents' home at 3361 Jackson Drive, Orangeburg, South Carolina.

Currently, Defendant is residing under house arrest at his grandmother's house at 1104 Mobile Street, Orangeburg, South Carolina. Defendant avers that the victim in the June 2, 2019 incident has moved from South Carolina to Florida.

The bond conditions that Defendant wishes to amend attach to the bond set or issued by this court on August 5, 2019, a bond that addressed only the victim in the June 2, 2019 incident.

BOND HISTORY: The bond at issue in this order was set by me in the First Judicial Circuit on August 5, 2019 after a hearing was held. Earlier, on or about January 29, 2019, Defendant was arrested and charged with CSC in the first degree for an incident that happened on or about October 7, 2018. A magistrate judge set bond in that case and provided for certain conditions to include GPS monitoring. On April 11, 2019, Judge Thomas L. Hughston, after a modification hearing, granted Defendant's request to remove the GPS monitoring condition. In June 2019, Defendant was charged again with CSC first degree. When the second offense occurred Defendant was not wearing a GPS monitoring device and thusly his movements were not being monitored.

When the second arrest was made the magistrate denied bond for the June 2019 offense and arrest. Defendant moved before Judge Casey Manning who denied bond without prejudice. Because Judge Manning's ruling was without prejudice Defendant renewed his motion for bond for the second offense before me on August 5, 2019. I issued a ruling regarding bond. This is the bond, or the conditions of that bond, that is before me for consideration.

(The bond conditions I am asked to modify relate only to the case or charge related to the victim of the June 2, 2019 incident. I see that as a technical issue and, right or wrong, address the modification request here to include, to some degree as you will see, the victim of the October 2018 incident. Further, please be mindful that my use of the words "victim" or "victims" does not, as we well know, determine the guilt of Defendant.)

STATEMENT BY FRANCISCA CHAMBERS: Ms. Ford offered the statement of Francisca Chambers wherein she offered her opinion as an expert in the area of victims of sexual assault. I read her statement and appreciate her position. However, to insure her concern that the victims be shielded from any or all contact with Defendant would require a denial of bond and placement of Defendant in jailed confinement. I have crafted this order with continuing efforts to minimize any contact involving Defendant and the victims.

VICTIM'S ARGUMENT THAT THERE HAS BEEN NO PRIMA FACIA SHOWING OF A MATERIAL CHANGE IN THE CIRCUMSTANCES TO WARRANT MODIFICATION OF THE BOND CONDITIONS.

Ms. Ford, on behalf of the victim (or victims), states that SC law requires that Defendant present a qualifying change of circumstances before a bond modification can be made. Ms. Ford offered the following "...only upon the defendant's prima facia showing of a material change of circumstances which relate to the factors provided in Section 17-15-30 and which have arisen since the prior motion to reconsider..." SC Code Ann. 17-15-55 (A) (2).

Ms. Ford offers that none of the modification factors reference any action of the victim as allowing a modification, and she avers that Defendant did not file a written motion making a prima facia showing of a material change in circumstance.

As to the absence of a written motion prepared and submitted by Defendant, there was no objection at the hearing as to the absence of a motion from Defendant. Thusly, the hearing proceeded without this motion. I did not see a statutory requirement that the motion be in written form. Whether one should be or not, there was no objection at the hearing.

Ms. Ford asserts that there is no precedent for a victim's change of circumstances justifying a bond modification. Regarding the noted statute of criteria to consider bond condition modifications, I did not see any language restricting the modification analysis to only those factors provided. I think it reasonable to assume that if the legislature wanted the considerations to be limited to only those factors provided, the legislature would have crafted the statute to state just that. I do, and should, applaud Ms. Ford for her assertion that the victim's move to Florida should not be a change of circumstances Defendant should be allowed to argue, I respectfully disagree, especially when the concern is there being no contact by Defendant with the victims. Indeed, if victim lives in Florida for most of the year that is, in my view, a material change of circumstances.

VICTIM'S ARGUMENT THAT DEFENDANT'S PARENTS' HOUSE IS NOT A SAFE OR APPROPRIATE PLACE FOR THE DEFENDANT TO SERVE HIS HOUSE ARREST.

Ms. Ford correctly asserts that Defendant was living with his parents at their home when the three incidents happened. (I have noted the two leading to Defendant's arrests. In this section of her reply to the modification arrest, Ms. Ford mentions that a first complaint was made in May 2018 that is still under investigation as of March 2020.) Yet, there is one element missing in this position: Defendant was not subject to or wearing any GPS tracking device when living with his parents. For a time he was, but it was when he was not monitored that the assault events occurred. He was not being GPS monitored when the May 2018 episode took place or when the October 2018 event occurred. And, because another judge had removed the GPS monitoring, Defendant was not wearing one when the June 2, 2019 assault happened.

While Defendant has been GPS monitored there have been no assaults or any other offenses or related problems, to include harassment or threats made to the victims. No such information was offered at the hearing.

Again, Ms. Ford has offered a strong argument that Defendant's parents cannot provide a secure place for Defendant. Yet, again I note that when Defendant erred he was not being monitored.

VICTIM'S ARGUMENT THAT ALLOWING DEFENDANT TO RELOCATE TO HIS PARENTS' HOUSE WILL VIOLATE THE VICTIM'S CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS.

I agree with Ms. Ford's well-written position regarding the victims' rights. Yet, I am mindful that such rights do not negate or surpass those of Defendant. Indeed, a balancing of the rights comes into play. Let us not forget that there has been no conviction for any of the charges. I appreciate the argument of the victims.

The precise point offered is that allowing Defendant to live with his parents under house arrest will increase the likelihood that Defendant and victims will see or encounter each other. Currently, Defendant lives with his grandmother three to four miles from his parents' home in Orangeburg. If Defendant is at his parents' home the distance is less than a mile or so from one victim.

Again, I address the GPS monitoring factor that was not in place when the assaults happened. Regardless of the residential location of Defendant he will be (1) on house arrest and (2) subject to GPS monitoring. Might he and the victims encounter each other by happenstance? Possibly but such could have happened or could happen if he lives with his grandmother. One victim attends school in Florida and the other attends school in the Charleston, South Carolina area. Thus, during the school year victims, most of the time, will not be in or near Orangeburg where Defendant resides either with his parents or his grandmother. Supervision of Defendant pursuant to the prior bond conditions will remain in force. See (f) on page three of that bond order.

I respectfully disagree that the modification requested ignores the rights of the victims. I have considered their rights.

VICTIMS' ARGUMENT THAT THEIR CONSTITUTIONAL RIGHTS HAVE BEEN CONSISTENTLY VIOLATED THROUGHOUT THIS CASE.

Victims assert that the State has allowed Defendant to circumvent his bond conditions. This matter or issue of accusation is not before me. I have been involved twice in this case. I heard the bond modification motion in August 2019 and I heard the request in Lee County, South Carolina, on March 9, 2020. I am not trying to dodge the issue or allegation but I was not involved in any events related to the Defendant, the victims, or the bond conditions between those two episodes of my involvement or before I became involved.

Regarding notice to victims regarding this modification request, on Friday, February 28, 2019, at 4:53 p.m., I told Assistant Solicitor Miller, by email, that "...since the victims want to be present and heard we will need to hold a hearing." I also stated that "...if the victim desires to be present then a hearing is needed." Responses to my email indicated that the victims would be present at the hearing. I am not saying that my email alone insured notice to the victims. Clearly, Assistant Solicitor Miller informed Ms. Ford of the hearing and she indicated the victims would be present.

Having addressed the arguments of Ms. Ford who represented the victims well and with much alacrity in this matter, I stress to all that in this matter I have "called it like I see it" with no reason or desire to reward or punish Defendant, the victims, or the lawyers. In my view, the episodes of assaults all happened when Defendant was not monitored. He will remain monitored. I am not aware of any criminal conduct or charges against Defendant when monitored. (I again stress that my words here are not conclusive of the guilt of Defendant.)

Accordingly based upon the foregoing, I find and conclude as follows:

There has been a prima facia change of circumstances allowing modification of the bond condition thereby allowing Defendant to reside in his parents' home immediately upon the filing of this signed order. Notice of this ruling shall be provided to the victims coupled with the victims being given certified copies of the order once signed. Additionally, at no time shall Defendant, even with any of the four adults named in the prior order, be allowed to travel upon the roadways or streets where either of the victims or their immediate families live.

Those conditions and orders of any of the prior bonds not amended in this ruling or order shall remain in full force and effect and are merged into this ruling by reference and made a part of this order.

It is here and now ordered this 16th day of March 2020 at Julio, South Carolina.
