ANGELIA SOLOMON	) Docket No. 131	D1446 # 3 1.C.

FINAL DECREE

This cause came to be heard on the 15th day of August, 2014, before the Honorable Philip E. Smith, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon Husband's Complaint for Absolute Divorce; upon the Marital Dissolution Agreement which provides for division of the parties' respective rights and interests in all joint and individual property, and apportionment of responsibility for payment of the parties' joint and individual debts; the Parenting Plan which provides for custody and support of the parties' minor children, upon all of the pleadings and upon the testimony of Husband and statements of counsel, from all of which the Court affirmatively found that the allegations of Husband's Complaint are sustained by the proof in that there exist such irreconcilable differences between the parties as would entitle Husband to an absolute divorce; that the parties, by written agreement, made adequate and sufficient provision for the settlement of property rights between themselves and made adequate and sufficient provision for custody and maintenance of the parties' minor children; that the Marital Dissolution Agreement and Parenting Plan should be approved; and that the ninety day waiting period, as required by statute, has elapsed.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Husband, Aaron L. Solomon, be, and hereby is, awarded an absolute divorce from the Wife on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, that the parties be restored to all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are hereby

FINAL DECREE

This cause came to be heard on the 15th day of August, 2014, before the Honorable Philip E. Smith, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee, upon Husband's Complaint for Absolute Divorce; upon the Marital Dissolution Agreement which provides for division of the parties' respective rights and interests in all joint and individual property, and apportionment of responsibility for payment of the parties' joint and individual debts; the Parenting Plan which provides for custody and support of the parties' minor children, upon all of the pleadings and upon the testimony of Husband and statements of counsel, from all of which the Court affirmatively found that the allegations of Husband's Complaint are sustained by the proof in that there exist such irreconcilable differences between the parties as would entitle Husband to an absolute divorce; that the parties, by written agreement, made adequate and sufficient provision for the settlement of property rights between themselves and made adequate and sufficient provision for custody and maintenance of the parties' minor children; that the Marital Dissolution Agreement and Parenting Plan should be approved; and that the ninety day waiting period, as required by statute, has elapsed.

It is, therefore, ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that the Husband, Aaron L. Solomon, be, and hereby is, awarded an absolute divorce from the Wife on the grounds of irreconcilable differences, that the parties be restored to all the rights and privileges of unmarried persons, and that the bonds of matrimony heretofore existing between the parties are hereby

ORDER

This cause came to be heard on the 9th day of May, 2014 before the Honorable Philip E. Smith, Judge of the Fourth Circuit Court for Davidson County, Tennessee upon Husband's Motion to Modify the Court's prior Order that he pay the cost of mediation, and the Wife's Motion to Expand Mother's Parenting Time. After hearing argument of counsel, the Court denied Husband's Motion for Wife to contribute to the payment of the mediator fees, but without prejudice to the Court considering the allocation of mediation fees at the Final Hearing, and the Court continued the Motion to Expand Mother's Parenting Time, although the Court indicated that parenting time would be expanded upon the re-filing of Mother's Motion, together with Affidavits from her treating psychologist and psychiatrist, and Father's right, if necessary, to depose those mental health caregivers. It is, therefore,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Husband's Motion to Modify the Court's prior Order that he pay the cost of mediation is denied, and Wife shall not be required to contribute to the payment of the mediator fees, but this ruling is without prejudice to the Court considering the allocation of mediation fees at the Final Hearing; and it is further,

ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED that Wife's Motion to Expand Mother's Parenting Time will be continued, although parenting time will be expanded upon the re-filing of Mother's Motion, together with Affidavits from her treating psychologist and psychiatrist, and Father's right, if necessary, to promptly depose those mental health caregivers.
