Re: John-Paul Miller
Pardon

Good morning Governor McMaster,

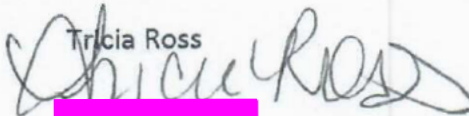

My name is Tricia Ross and I live in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. My address is [REDACTED] [REDACTED] My phone number is [REDACTED] I am in NO manner or form related to John-Paul Miller by blood or marriage. I am in support of a Pardon for John-Paul Miller.

I have known John-Paul Miller aka Pastor John-Paul Miller since 2007. He became mine and my husband's Pastor at that time. I have known him as a Pastor, a friend, and boss. He is the Pastor at Solid Rock Ministries doing business as Solid Rock at Market Common. I am currently the Administrative Pastor there.

I am fully aware that Pastor John-Paul had a past conviction of aggravated assault 23 years ago. Since I have known him I have not witnessed any behavior that would be considered abusive or criminal in nature. In fact, I have witnessed quite the opposite. He would give the shirt off his back for anyone. Since knowing him I have only seen him as a caring, hard-working, good father, great Pastor, and sensitive man. I have had consistent in person contact with him since 2007 (at least a few times each week) as my Pastor, and later as my boss. My husband and I also have been friends with him during that entire time. Before that, I saw him at church and numerous times during the week when we were serving the church.

I lost my husband to cancer in 2016. Pastor John-Paul has been nothing but supportive and caring during that time as well. Again, I have witnessed his genuine caring and compassionate heart. I have seen him help many that have stepped down the wrong path and helped lead them down a better path with God guiding him. He has clearly changed since his conviction so many years ago.

Nothing would make me believe that he would ever be a repeat offender or commit any criminal offense again or endanger anyone for that matter. I completely support a pardon for Pastor John-Paul Miller!
