Dear Governor McMaster,

I am pleased to write a character reference letter for Pastor John Paul Miller.

I have had the pleasure of knowing Pastor Miller for about 7 years. He has been my Pastor and close friend since we joined the church. I have witnessed him growing as a spiritual, compassionate, and responsible person. Pastor Miller has always displayed a high degree of integrity, responsibility, and concern for others.

He is more mature than his years, as expressed by his deep knowledge of the Bible and his innovative method of teaching. He has endless qualities as a skilled leader who always maintains his professionalism.

He has excellent communication skills. Furthermore, he has a great ability to interact effectively and efficiently with his congregation and ensure that the message is received.

I can truly understand how difficult it is for you to have to make a decision of this type and under these circumstances, without really knowing Pastor Miller. I put my trust in God that you can look at this letter and feel all the support that this letter represents from the 300+ church member congregation, the family and the friends of Pastor Miller.

Sir, you have spent the last year taking great care of the citizens of South Carolina, because of who you are, I am putting my complete trust in your wise decision, as always.

Sincerely,

Linda Phillips
