NARRATIVE	On 28 November 2022, R/o responded to call for service at Waccamaw Mental Health (WMH) at 9630 Scipio Lane in the Myrtle Beach section of Horry County in reference to a female locked in the bathroom with an unknown condition. On scene, WMH workers informed officers that the female has exited the bathroom and was sitting in the passenger seat of a burgundy Ram truck in the parking lot with a male who is trying to take her from the scene. Officers located the truck and both occupants. While speaking with the female later identified as Other Entity 2 (O2) the male identified as Other Entity 3 (O3) would interrupt her answers and not allow her to speak to officers. WMH workers advised R/o that the female appeared to be extremely weak when she was inside the building and stated she passed out both in the lobby and the bathroom and they feared she was under the influence. R/o was approached by the female identified as Other Entity 1 (O1) [REDACTED]. O1 stated her and [REDACTED] drove here separately without O3 to get O2 mental health help [REDACTED]. O1 stated that O3 pulled up went inside and wouldn't allow O2, [REDACTED], to get the help she needed inside and instead brought her

out to his truck and wouldn't let her out. O1 further stated this has been an ongoing issues between the group and just weeks prior O2 left the area seeking help in Cherokee County [REDACTED] in an attempt to leave O3. While away O3 allegedly had a mental break down and stated he was suicidal resulting in MBPD conducting welfare checks on him. O1 stated that O3 has been "mentally abusing" O2 for an extended period of time by not allowing her to sleep, eat or contact her family.

Do to the unknown circumstances surrounding this incident officers on scene separated the parties which finally allowed HCFR to speak with O2 alone and determine she needed to go to the hospital. O3 was unhappy about being separated and made a call to who he stated was Lt. Wilson. O3 still being kept distant to [REDACTED] while the investigation took place. O2 decided to go voluntarily with HCFR to [REDACTED] for a mental health evaluation. While leaving on the stretcher O1 was allowed to make contact with O2 so personal items could be secured. O3 was upset about this but was told do to the circumstances of the situation he was being kept away from O2. O3 again called Lt. Wilson and advised R/o "you will be getting a call". O3 then walked to the far side of the parking lot away from the incident location. HCFR transported O2 and all officers on scene cleared. O1 requested that this incident be documented in a report.
