

Pamela Susan Miller vs. Reginal Wayne Miller, 01-DR-26-1259

To whom it may concern,

Patrick Miller has attended three of my classes. My name is Jennifer Viglino, and I am a High School teacher at Cathedral Hall Academy. As a teacher, I know he needs a strong academic foundation to succeed in his endeavors after graduation. This academic success will only be achieved through school attendance and parental involvement in his education. I have taught school since August and have only met with his father concerning his academic progress. The students mother has not shown any interest in his academic endeavors, and furthermore has no knowledge of his grades or attendance through contacting the teachers. Since the parents have moved into separate households, Patrick has been consistently tardy for school while staying at the mothers house. Patrick Miller will only succeed academically if he is in the custody of a parent who will take full interest in his high school academic career,

Thank you,

To whom it may concern,

Patrick Miller has been a student of mine for the entire 2000-2001 school year. During this time the only parent who has come to me concerning anything to do with Patrick's school work has been his father. Although I have had contact with his mother on occasion, she has never even mentioned Patrick's schooling, much less inquired about it.

If I was asked about the best situation concerning Patrick, I would recommend that he be in custody of the parent who has expressed interest and concern in Patrick's education.

To Whom It May Concern:

I have known Dr. Wayne Miller for more than six years. He is the Senior Pastor of Cathedral Baptist Church in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. During the years that I have known Wayne, he has served two terms as President of the Myrtle Beach Ministerial Association. He has been asked to preach at local community-wide worship services sponsored by the Myrtle Beach Ministerial Association. I have never known Wayne to be anything but honest and forthright in his dealings with me and the other pastors here in Myrtle Beach. He is a kind, loving man; a highly respected Pastor and Educator; and I consider it an honor to be associated with him as a colleague in ministry.

Sincerely,

Dennis L. Setzer, Jr.,

My name is Sherif Y. Shamaa, I'm a medical doctor and practiced medicine for eleven years in Egypt, and I've been living in the US for the past three years. I have been attending Cathedral Bible College for the past two years. I have come to know Dr. Wayne Miller and his children and visited with them several times since they moved to the townhouse.

I have been invited for meals on more than one occasion with his family and other guests. I have always been impressed with the neatness of the house and the healthy and clean environment. Dr Miller's children: Lacy and Patrick are well behaved and engaging. Dr. Miller would be teaching Lacy to help serve meals and entertain. Dr. Miller is an excellent cook.

I have always witnessed a loving and caring environment and it would be detrimental to take the children away from it.

To Whom It May Concern:

This letter is in regard to Lacy Miller. I have known Lacy for two and a half years and has been my pleasure to teach her this year in school (2000-2001 school year).

Lacy has struggled to keep her grades up all year, but her grades fell to C's during the third quarter (January-March). This is greatly accredited to her being late to school often. During this time, her mother was responsible for getting her to school. Sometimes she wouldn't arrive at school until 12:30. Most of the time, however, she would come to school at around 9:30.

It has also been a struggle all year to get Lacy to study. Since she has moved in with her father, she has begun to study for every test and has raised all of her grades to A's.

Knowing Lacy for two and a half years, I have noticed that Lacy is a much happier and sensitive child since being with her father. There seems to be more of a sense of security in her life.

Sincerely,

To Whom It May Concern:

My letter to you is about a beautiful child named Lacy Miller. I have Lacy in my Sunday school class at Cathedral Church and have known her for two years. She started in my class in September.

I have noticed that when Lacy is with her father she is in church and on time. One month she missed three weeks straight and this was not like her. She was with her mom on those occasions and when she misses it is when she is with mom.

I know she is going through a lot, but consistency helps build security and she needs this in her life, especially now. She seems content, happy and definitely more secure with her dad.

Lacy has become a more affectionate child these past months which I had not seen before.

I have worked with Pastor Wayne and have been a close friend of the family for twenty-six years.

I have not seen much support from Susan towards Pastor Wayne in building a ministry. She brought the children to Sunday School but would not participate herself, and then kept Lacy out for almost a year.

Pastor Wayne has always taken care of the home including house cleaning and meals. Recently, I went to the home with Pastor, his mother, and another lady from the church to observe the filthy condition his children are living in when there. I think it in the best interest for the children to live with their father, having personally known them both for twenty-six years.

Remnant Fellowship Church

To: Whom It May Concern

Re: Susan Miller

I have known Susan and Wayne Miller for several years. At one time I attended Cathedral Church where he pastors. I came to know Susan much better through a book that she had written years ago and that I had read. This book allowed one to see into her heart. I don't believe that one could have written this without knowing and having a personal relationship with the Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ.

Though Susan was not extremely active in the governing of the church, she was always there at services and available to the members of that congregation. On several occasions Pastor Wayne Miller spoke some things that I felt sorrow in my heart about for Susan. When he explained at one time he had very much anger towards her, to the point of smacking her. My heart went out to hear a man explain these things from the pulpit, though he was using this statement in the context of forgiveness and repentance.

After that service there were many comments from others in the congregation of how that must have been very humiliating to Susan, having her husband share that to the entire body.

Recently I have heard of their pending divorce and even some of the accusations. I called Susan and asked if she would like to visit our small church because our home fellowship meetings on Thursday evenings take place just down the road from where she lives. Susan has visited Remnant Fellowship Church where we meet on Sundays. I had told Susan that we would pray for her as well as the entire situation and if we could give her any support to please let us know.

This letter is to confirm that I believe that this woman is of sound mind and has been hurt in her spirit and in her emotions with all that seems to be in the form of gossip and rumor about her and Wayne's divorce. I would like to go on record that I believe that Susan Miller not only is a fit mother and can take charge of her children and her own life but truly loves her children and the Lord.

We all make mistakes, none of us are perfect. I am sure that Susan too will admit that not all of the actions in her life have always been 100% correct in all areas. The scriptures say, "All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of the Lord". Therefore I choose to speak forgiveness and healing for any sins and misgivings that she may have committed and to go on record that she is loved by the Lord and many others as well.

If one was to look closely I am sure that mistakes, failures and sin can be found in the life of Wayne Miller as well. I know of some of these but do not intend to put them in this letter. I pray that Wayne would take the step of being an honorable person and support in every way his wife Susan or his ex-wife Susan. As a minister he is to love her as Christ loves the church not to be speaking and taking actions of harm.

In signing this letter there are several spaces for witnesses to my signature and that I wrote this letter on Susan Miller's behalf.

Thank you.

To whom it may concern,

I am writing this letter with a saddened heart and a deep concern for two people whom I have known and deeply loved for 26 years, Dr. Wayne and Susan Miller. Several months ago I called the residence of the Millers and spoke to Mrs. Miller. She asked me if I had heard the news and I responded that I had not. At that point she proceeded to tell me of the impending divorce between she and Dr. Miller.

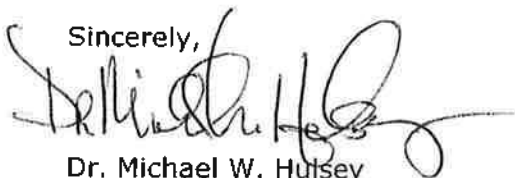

As a personal friend and also a Pastor I was immediately concerned and began to ask her what had happened. At that point she proceeded to inform me that she had committed adultery and that she had absolutely no remorse nor was her conscience violated. She also indicated that because of her sacrifice for the years she was married to Dr. Miller, she was going to demand what she considered a just recompense. I have not seen any evidence of Mrs. Miller having a change of heart, nor has she displayed sensitivity to the children and to the members of the congregation over which Dr. Miller is Pastor. She has continued to spread slanderous rumor and has threatened the children that she would ruin their Daddy's reputation and their school.

Having experienced growing up in a broken home, I know too personally the pain and scarring that is inevitably forced upon the children. Children whose parents are breaking their marriage commitment need to be kept in an environment that is familiar and consistent. My brothers, sister and I were removed from our schools, our friends, and our home. We felt tainted and were embarrassed to tell people the reason we had come to a new school was because of our parents divorce.

The Miller's children have been in a good environment that teaches not only Christian values, but also has an excellent academic reputation. They have friends and family there that care about them and are willing to comfort them and help to isolate them from the pain and embarrassment which they will experience.

Due to the circumstances in this situation, I strongly recommend that Dr. Miller be allowed to have custody of his children so that he may keep their environment as familiar as possible, and so that he may continue to ensure the moral and academic excellence of their lives.

Sincerely,

Dr. Michael W. Hulsey

ANSWER AND COUNTERCLAIM

CLERK
 01/11/21 PM 3:59

Defendant answers and counterclaims to the complaint of the Plaintiff as follows:

FOR A FIRST DEFENSE

1. Each and every allegation not specifically admitted, qualified, or explained is hereby denied and strict proof is demanded thereof.
2. Admits Paragraphs 1, 2 and 3.
3. Denies Paragraph 4.
4. Denies Paragraph 5 and affirmatively alleges that he has been the primary caretaker of the minor children.
5. Denies Paragraph 6 on the grounds that Defendant is informed and believes that he should be granted custody of the minor children, pendente lite and permanently.
6. Denies Paragraph 7 and affirmatively alleges that it is in the parties' best interests that Plaintiff immediately vacate the former marital residence to allow it to be rented or sold to avoid foreclosure.
7. Denies Paragraph 8 and affirmatively alleges that the vehicle currently in Plaintiff's possession is not a marital asset and therefore that issue is not properly before this court.
8. Denies Paragraph 9.
9. Denies so much of Paragraph 10 as alleges that Plaintiff assisted in the accumulation of assets and affirmatively alleges that all Plaintiff assisted in was the accumulation of debt; however, Defendant has no objection to the relief requested in Paragraph 10 as long as such relief is mutual

10. Denies Paragraphs 11 and 12.

11. Has no objection to the relief requested in Paragraphs 13 and 14 as long as such relief is mutual and that it does not interfere with the sale of the marital home to prevent foreclosure.

12. Denies that there is any basis for Plaintiff requesting a restraining order; however, Defendant has no objection to such relief as long as such relief is mutual.

FOR A SECOND DEFENSE

13. Defendant re-alleges each and every allegation of the first defense as if sully set out herein verbatim.

14. Upon information and belief Plaintiff has engaged in a pattern of adulterous conduct and therefore is barred from receiving alimony pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 20-3-130 (A) (Law Co-op. 1976).

FOR A THIRD DEFENSE AND BY WAY OF COUNTERCLAIM

15. Each and every allegation of the first and second defense are re-alleged as if fully set out herein verbatim.

16. Defendant is a citizen and resident of Horry County, South Carolina and has been for more than one year prior to the commencement of this action.

17. Upon information and belief, Plaintiff is a resident of Horry County, South Carolina.

18. The parties were married on April 14, 1974. Due to Plaintiff's adulterous affairs with other men, the parties separated on February 25, 2001 and have lived separate and apart since that time. Defendant is informed and believes that he is entitled to a divorce a vinculo matrimonii based upon the statutory grounds of adultery and asks that this Court grant him the same.

19. Three children were born of this marriage: John Paul Miller, date of birth May 20, [REDACTED] Patrick [REDACTED] Miller, date of birth December 7, [REDACTED] and Lacy

██████████ Miller, date of birth December 27, ██████████ John Paul Miller is emancipated.

20. Defendant has always been the primary caregiver of the minor child despite the fact that Plaintiff did not work outside the home. Defendant has a warm and nurturing relationship with the minor children. He is informed and believes that it is in the best interests of the minor children that he be granted custody, pendente lite and permanently, and asks that this Court grant him the same.

21. Upon information and belief Plaintiff is an able-bodied woman and earning sufficient income to pay a reasonable amount of child support. Defendant is informed and believes that he is entitled to child support according to the South Carolina Child Support Guidelines, pendente lite and permanently, and asks that this Court award him the same.

22. Throughout the marriage the parties have acquired minimal marital property and substantial marital debts. Despite Defendant's pleas to Plaintiff to live within their resources, Defendant has squandered their income and assets. Defendant is informed and believes that he is entitled to an equitable division of the marital property and debts and asks that this Court grant him the same.

23. Defendant has repeatedly asked the Plaintiff to vacate the former marital residence to allow the parties to put it up for sale. Plaintiff refuses to leave and refuses to take care of the property. Instead she continues to allow its market value to diminish and is putting the property at risk of foreclosure. He is informed and believes that he is entitled to an order requiring the Plaintiff to vacate the former marital residence so that the house can be rented or put up for sale to avoid foreclosure and asks that this Court grant him the same.

24. Plaintiff has a history of threatening Defendant especially at his place of employment causing him to not only fear for his safety but also for his job. Defendant is informed and believes that he is entitled to a restraining order, pendente lite and permanently, and asks that this Court grant him the same.

25. Defendant is informed and believes that the Plaintiff should be restrained from incurring any more debt in his name or for which he might be held responsible, pendente lite and permanently, and asks that this Court issue a restraining order enjoining the Plaintiff from such conduct.

26. Defendant is in need of discovery to adequately prepare his case for trial. Defendant asks that this Court grant him discovery pursuant to the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure and the South Carolina Rules of Family Court.

27. Due to the wrongful conduct of the Plaintiff, Defendant has been forced to retain an attorney to protect himself and the minor children. Defendant is without funds to pay his attorney and is need of attorney's fees from the Plaintiff. Defendant asks that this Court grant him attorney's fees and costs of the action, pendente lite and permanently.

WHEREFORE, having fully set forth his complaint, Defendant prays for an Order of this Court granting him the following relief:

- A. Dismissal of the Complaint with prejudice to the extent that it is inconsistent with the relief requested in the Counterclaim;
- B. Divorce a vinculo matrimonii based upon the statutory grounds of adultery;
- C. Custody, pendente lite and permanently;
- D. Child support, pendente lite and permanently;
- E. Equitable division of the marital property and debts, pendente lite and permanently;
- F. An order now and forever barring alimony to the Defendant;
- G. An order requiring the Defendant to immediately vacate the former marital residence;
- H. Restraining order, pendente lite and permanently;
- I. Restraining order enjoining Defendant from incurring any debt in Plaintiff's name or for which Plaintiff might be held responsible, pendente lite and permanently;
- J. Discovery;
- K. Attorney's fees and costs of action, pendente lite and permanently;
- L. Such other and further relief as this Court deems just and proper.
