FINAL DECREE OF DIVORCE
(Ending Action)

The Plaintiff instituted this action for separate support and maintenance, by the filing of a Summons and Complaint. The Defendant was properly served and timely filed his Answer and Counterclaim. Both parties, their attorneys, and the Plaintiff's corroborating witness were present at the final hearing. Plaintiff's counsel made a motion to allow the Plaintiff to supplement her Complaint and seek a divorce on the ground of one year separation. The Defendant did not object to the Plaintiff's motion, and the motion to supplement the complaint was granted. Prior to the call of the case for trial, the attorneys for the parties announced to the Court that a full and complete agreement had been reached on all issues. I find the Plaintiff is entitled to a divorce on the ground of one year separation and the agreement of the parties should be approved as the order of the Court.

MS

JRP

JURISDICTION

1. The parties were married on April 14, 1974. Three children have been born unto the marriage, namely John-Paul Miller, whose date of birth is May 20, [REDACTED] Patrick [REDACTED] Miller, whose date of birth is December 7, [REDACTED]; and Lacy [REDACTED] Miller, whose date of birth is December 27, [REDACTED]. The Defendant was properly served with a copy of the Summons and Complaint. Both parties have appeared personally and through their pleadings. Both parties were present with counsel at the final hearing, and thus this Court has personal jurisdiction of the parties.
2. This is an action for divorce and related matrimony relief. Therefore, this court has subject matter jurisdiction. Machado v. Machado, 220 S.C. 90, 66 S.E.2d 629 (1951), and South Carolina Code Ann. Section 20-3-10 and Section 20-7-420, 1976 as amended.
3. The parties last resided together as husband and wife in the State of South Carolina, and the parties have resided in the State of South Carolina for many years prior to the filing of this action. Therefore, both parties satisfy the residency requirements of South Carolina divorce law. South Carolina Code Ann. Section 20-3-30.
4. Horry County is the proper venue of this action as the parties last resided here as husband and wife. South Carolina Code Ann. Section 20-3-60.
5. This action was filed on May 10, 2001, and the matter is ripe for the issuance of a final decree. South Carolina Code Ann. Section 20-3-80.
6. Before commencing this proceeding, I made an earnest attempt to bring about a reconciliation. I inquired as to the possibility of a reconciliation, but my efforts were unavailing. South Carolina Code Ann. Section 20-3-90.
7. I had the opportunity to observe the demeanor of both parties during the proceeding and to thoroughly review the court's entire file. I am convinced that no collusion or connivance has occurred during this proceeding.

RIGHT TO DIVORCE

8. The Plaintiff has requested a divorce, a vinculo matrimonii, from the Defendant, on the ground of one year continuous separation.
9. The Defendant testified that the parties have lived separate and apart continuously without cohabitation since February 25, 2001. The Plaintiff offered David J. Victoria, Jr. as her corroborating witness. Mr. Victoria works with the Defendant and knows both parties well. Mr. Victoria corroborated the Plaintiff's testimony and confirmed, of his own knowledge, that the parties have lived separate and apart continuously since February 25, 2001. There is no present chance of reconciliation, and I find that the Plaintiff has adequately proven that the parties have lived continuously apart since February 25, 2001.
10. I conclude, therefore, that the Plaintiff is entitled to a divorce, a vinculo matrimonii, from the Defendant upon the ground of one year continuous separation.

APPROVAL OF AGREEMENT

11. The Plaintiff's attorney announced to the Court the agreement of the parties and the Defendant's attorney confirmed the terms of the agreement. The agreement of the parties is as follows:

Custody

- a. The parties shall have joint legal custody of their minor children with neither party being designated as primary or secondary custodial parent.
- b. The parties will work together to make all decisions regarding their children's well being and care.
- c. Each party shall notify the other before removing their daughter from the State of South Carolina.
- d. Each party has agreed to provide the other with all information regarding their daughter's medical records, education records, extra-curricular activities, and all other matters relating to their daughter.
- e. Each party shall keep the other advised of his or her current address, telephone number, and place of employment.

- f. Each party shall give the other at least sixty (60) days notice of his or her intent to move outside of Horry County.
- g. The parties shall not discuss any financial issues in the presence of their children.
- h. Neither party shall make any disparaging or derogative remarks about the other in the presence of their children nor shall they allow any third party to make any disparaging or derogative remarks about the other in the presence of the children.
- i. The noncustodial party would have the right of first refusal to have Lacy stay with him or her if the custodial party has a need to be away overnight when Lacy is scheduled to be in his or her custody.
- j. Neither party shall have over night guest with whom he or she is romantically involved while the children are in their custody.

Visitation

- k. The Defendant shall have visitation alternating weekends from Friday after school until Sunday evening.
- l. The Defendant shall have visitation every Thursday night and also shall have visitation any Sunday that the Plaintiff does not take her daughter to church.
- m. The Defendant will also have visitation after school each day the Plaintiff is at work until after her employment.
- n. The Defendant shall have visitation each day during the summer while the Plaintiff is at work until after her employment.
- o. The Defendant shall have extended visitation for one week each month during the months of June, July and August each year. The Defendant shall give Plaintiff sufficient notice of the weeks he desires to exercise the extended summer visitation by May 1 of each year.
- p. The status quo shall be continued between the parties regarding visitation during Easter, Thanksgiving, and Christmas in that the holidays shall be equally divided and rotated between the parties.
