I am very very very lucky to have found a female that I'm OK with considering my issues with women, and basically being molested by my own mother, so yes, we both have deep issues with the same sex. I was willing to compromise and go without you you've given no compromise.

Find ur man
Go talk to him
And if u like him, I'll come along and listen
Even tho it brings me anxiety, stress, pain, and [REDACTED] more.
But I'm going to do it because u fought so hard to have that even when I told u what the result would be.
If u really wanted a man and we're not ok with a woman, we could come up with other options.
But the only reason u want a man
