Okay we really have to help Mica. I told her before you two can work on things she has to get well by seeing a psychiatrist. She has since sent me this text which you can tell is like her talking right now. Not sure if you can talk to her family or what but she needs help ASAP. I would consider this a major manic episode. I am worried about her because if her mind thoughts and energy continues like it is she is gonna crash so hard. She doesn't need sleep she's not eating and her mind is not stopping. She cannot help this but we have to get her help. I will help in any way I can I care about both of you but this is not healthy. I've never seen her like this I thought listening would help her but the mania is at a point it cannot be controlled. I am praying. 🙏 This text starts off because she called me after she went home and I didn't have my ringer on.

No worries, that was meant to be... obviously God doesn't want you to know the finally because YOU play a major roll. Good and bad but this time... you fill in the blank with whatever God is speaking to you right now. Let's just say you are about to come into a large sum of... (keep in mind that knowledge is the most valuable thing that God has and we cannot know it all, that's why it was BAD that Adam and Eve: me and jp, eat from it... now that YOU and me are the only two people in the whole world that know MOST of all the prophecies but we are still humans our reaction because we are bent towards evil... is to cover up what we perceive to be shame OR knowledge which is why Adam and Eve cover up!!! We cannot do that again, that's why me and Jp's wedding is the perfect blend of honor for the past and for some reason god put it on my heart to have the FLAG presented at my wedding!!! And stream live at 3 different angles and angels but yet one live feed that you you can flow between. Everyone ridiculed me saying the pledge of allegiance was out of place but again everything is opposite!!! AND we just learned how to share our unity with the world and God gave me and [REDACTED] and jp the tools to make a video of salvation that is so simple even a CHILD can understand!!!! But this time you will pass the test for all of man kind to choose god over... you fill in what you think is best as again I am only suppose to help you. Jesus spoke in parables remember??? Then it all has to be complete by the NEW YEAR to pave the way for his kids and my siblings to work together to build the temple but [REDACTED] The prodigal and he adopted orphan the forgotten must come home and be found and I will have a NON-virgin birth because me and jp just had sex two nights ago and Christmas is 10 days away!!!! The 12 aye of Christmas!!! Which the Jews call Hanukkah which means UNITY so jp and I MUST light six and six and GOD will light the 7th making 13!!! Which Christmas EVE will be on a Friday!! Which is Friday the 13th so a day that we see as negative will become positive. God made me and jp unify on SUNDAY which is the first time we've had sex since me boob job... but I was given Loki the god of mischief so backwards would be the servant of order I was this time it will be the imperfect still innocent white baby symbol of the baby Jesus. Jesus was brothers with John and James who loved him very much and I believe he also had three other brothers Loki is now adopted can to pebbles which Goliath and his four brothers were defeated with stones five pebble's , Who is three years and three months old. Song of Solomon (wisdom) says let her breast satisfy you ALWAYS which when I got boobs I became unashamed to be naked!!! I believe jp will super naturally become stronger in 2 weeks time!!! And he just cut his hair which is the OPPOSITE of what Samson had to do to have Gods favor because God likes everything to be perfect so jp had to be clean cut!!!!!!! So that he WONT rely on his own strength or anything we could ever do or keep like hair. Then when Sampson realized this God made his hair grow BACK (which means God will keep JP's hair trimmed because the word says Jesus will come back cleaned shaved and his bride will have long hair!!! So my HAIR I just turned back to my natural color by [REDACTED]!! Are you ready for this!!!! I have seven sibling including myself, JP has 5 Kids!!! That makes 12 disciples!!! [REDACTED] is the betrayer!!! He MUST choose out of free will to complete the ultimate forgiveness and love that covers all!!!! of his mistakes wow and [REDACTED] is the oldest of Jp's sons who is the only one out of his kids with a different mother who number one fall back in life is greed!!! So he must choose to break it!!!! Freely so I'm not going to tell him anything. They just posted the video of miller PERFECT(all of the sudden we all have to impulse for perfection and doing the impossible!!!!and I haven't had my "glimpse of heaven" in a while which I also saw as round! And shining light sun on the water or... diamonds!!!! It always starts small and gets bigger but then disappears for 45 leaving my visually impaired so all I can do is sleep omg it's not 19 minutes of sleep!! It's 16 minutes of sleep again reverse so it is 45 plus 16 which is ONE HOUR of meditation that God has been forcing me to slow for my whole life sometime more often than not but I haven't had on in a while because now it's like I can see it I can't see again opposite:) at one time you'll like it... fill in the blank... but not enough to keep from what I just told you at the last phone call. Again you specifically can't know everything (that is key specifically THE key to heaven and hell.. and is worth more than silver and gold and diamonds combined which is our ultimate reward when we all get to heaven. I have to go now my birth can't reminder keeps going of but I keep silencing it:) that's also key that I keep silencing the control because God wants us the LOOSE control!!! Me and jp WILL GO TO Counseling and get confirmation:) today!!! And we will make each other's weddings because god gave ME the idea and I already told jp about it yesterday!!! Think about it, we had sex on Sunday night, conception, then over night growth, then growth, then rejection, then crucifixion because The very thing we created that he birthday in me he now wants to destroy its again opposite of what you would think!!! jp took our wedding invitation down, and today we will fight to hell and back together!!! And cast our rings out of fire but not smell like smoke or be burn because Jesus already did that once!!!! And I canceled my special order the rings that are supposed to be perfectly fitted to me and kept the imperfect as we will use the imperfection the cold already on my rings to cast the unified cold that my thumbprint will be on and it came from my two rings that JP bought rib for R3hab there's even shaped in the bottom of my ring like two little ribs and it's not rose gold that's the beauty it's real gold so so we will both have the cold like I talked about and it will be made out of imperfection and something that was pre-existing that I canceled the perfect order ones for because it took too long I excepted the imperfection and I used it through God's power for good and to complete it. Another important factor is that all of the nude beaches that are becoming more popular are always on the edges of all the continents our shame listen this will unite us. That is something very important to keep in mind. I am writing this all down and giving it to you because there must be a record that every single prophecy was for filled. Now for Temptation begins will we call each other crazy and turn against each other we will we unify and spread the knowledge without shame using the Internet which is an invisible force that we cannot see using it believing in what we cannot see you can't touch it but it touches everyone opposite but the same!!! The antichrist will work with Christ: money, no shame of knowledge, or nakedness- a perfect circle of value making the perfect cord!!! I MUST go now:) love you!!!! Oh by the way you know how you kept telling me to sleep because you're one of the disciples Jesus did not sleep and I have been given Christ as a gift of birth but a virgin birth actually a non-virgin birth we had sex on Sunday then it went through growth on Monday then it went through integrity test on Tuesday, then it went through testimonial on Wednesday, then betrayal and crucifixion on Thursday, and today Friday is Resurrection day and night of 1000 candles is tonight!!! Plus God give me all these marketing marketing ideas for the seven years of tribulation so that I have a residual income set up for my family when the seven years of trials come I won't have to work I can quit today and begin my calling, bbut somehow through wisdom I have to slowly make JP think this was all his idea implant good into his mind instead of eating the apple bringing shame and passing it to the husband I must do the opposite and do the past and the snake must not come and tempt me not to share the knowledge, the snake or if we are speaking in opposites snakes slither among the ground eagles soar in the air eagles the people I think logically are the ones that must not try to stop me the ones that love knowledge and make sense must be the major supporters the Eagles!!!! And this time it will not be an Apple where it is top-heavy and light on the bottom so it toppled over easy this time it will be an hour glass equal on both sides so I will have that hourglass in the middle of my wedding to represent the quality of man and woman working together time and valuable knowledge is the most two important things that God gave us!!! Which brings me to the end I must go now and begin I cannot wait another moment. I must start the process by order of Larry telling my bosses that the reason that all of this is happening and I created the residual income is to hopefully gain the respect enough to keep the royalties and still quit on good terms :) and do the seven days of Christmas providing every E [redacted] person with something that God loves about them and an individual present!!!! Somehow E [redacted] just Honda is very vital to all of this salesmen are the key because they understand everyone that is their job so they must be filled with energy and know that they are special and be filled with encouragement and the joy of the Lord will be there strength and they will begin to know that gods yoke is easy and his burden is light so their work will not be hard if they pass along knowledge encouragement and value in the Honda!!! I stat will be the first flying car and will not use gasoline they just invented the Honda clarity which makes you seem better and the insight which has not been in America for years it's always been in Europe and Japan so now it is come to America clarity and insidht both electric cars that plug into your home that charge at night and you can use them in the day and it's an energy you cannot see how perfect yet you cannot see it but it powers your vehicle how brilliant they cannot see it but they will begin to believe it with clarity and insight:) first starts with the fit because we must have been fit to finally realize all of this so we become civilized like the civic like we become an unbreakable one accord with the three Trinity's uniting us because the 2018 accord has the three different model types but yet they are one then we must use the CRV which is Christ resurrection vehicle The transportation it will take to get to the pilot because the pilot is key God will take it over we will go on an odyssey as a family in a van all connected yet able to interrupt in working order as there is a night and day camera in the back which you can Zoom in and out because it has smart phone capabilities. ██████ prophesied that all God had to do was dry up my sales in three months and I would quit because I would know it was from him but ██████ was slightly slower it would take three days to recognize that he will not drive up he will overflow my sales and I will know it was because of God and not me:) so it took me seven years of my career since graduation of high school to prepare for the seven years of famine oil's will dry up the mark in the Meyer will dry up and we will only be able to rely on each other for bartering the money system will be broken we will have to work together by using energy:) which as we have discovered travels through the ground no visible connections necessary!!! I am supposed to make this app so we can all communicate then once we all know we won't need it anymore to communicate it will be so easy to learn that we can all communicate in this time instead of creating the Tower of Babel and got destroying it we bring all of our silver or gold are valuable tools together and give it all back but there will be one person holding back that must complete the image of God the four-way eagle ox man and lion which is all turned around because everything will be opposite the eagle will become the man the intelligent will switch for joy the ox in the lion will switch boldness for calmness and diligence ██████ who is an ox will become a lion!!! ██████ to Judah's but only HALF of Judis. There are many judis'as in the Bible some passages read that he hit his rock his head on a rock and died accidentally another Scripture says that Judas hung himself so I believe it was the same two ways but the shame was divided so instead of falling into a rock and dying and she will become a rock and will become and come alive then the other shame instead of hanging himself with guilt he will on tie not his head but hit feet and walk across the bridge that Christ already paved the way for trading beauty for ashes strength for fear gladness from morning and peace for despair. Then we will all worship as eve will sing New notes and songs and sounds and even sing in color and then and only then the people will join in and God will inhabit the praises of his people and begin a new pioneer The wedding will be complete and the seven years of trials and tribulations we will begin then as the word says Armageddon must happen everyone will all be to gather hell earth and heaven but this time we will be seven years prepared to fight and conquer Satan once and for all!!!! We must complete it this time what God will begin the test again. And reset time as it is for eternity and the chance to make it right will never stop until we get it right and make the circle complete with the diamond in the center at the top of the continual circle making it inseparable unconquerable the diamond will give forgiveness and mercy and growth and beauty out of yesterday's mistakes and grace and hope for the future and the most important thing is rest we will all return back into a deep slumber after the battle is won and then we will rest in the shadow of the Almighty under his wings. And then let eternity and the new creation of other planets begin.

Amen
