TITLE: Richard "Buster" Murdaugh Alex Murdaugh's Eldest Son	01:10:50	PASSION (VO/ON) Most of the popular groups were people's family that had money, big names like the Murdaughs. If your name's not powerful, like my last name, compared to the Murdaughs, it's on the bottom. You're either here, or you're here. So it's like, I'm here. (laughs) It's like, some people can just do whatever they want, and then they just throw their last name out there and then they get away with it. I guess if you don't have money, you're a nobody. If I did half the things that the Murdaughs are accused of, I would be under the jail cell.
Ashly in an interview.	01:11:29	ASHLY (VO/ON) We didn't have a lot, you know, growing up, but Stephen understood something that a lot of kids don't understand in that this is not forever, that we were deserving of more, and that...a dream is what you make it.

Lt. Moore in an interview. Footage of police arriving on the scene of incident. TITLE: Lt. Thomas Moore SC Highway Patrol Officer	01:12:31	LT. MOORE (VO/ON) I was a first sergeant. I received a call early in the morning, before my shift started, saying, "We think there's been a hit-and-run involving a pedestrian." When I get on scene, the Sheriff's Department is already there. So is the coroner. I looked at his injuries. I walked the scene to look for vehicle parts. I mean, that road, essentially, was clean. Nothing on it--no parts, no glass, no fragments, no anything. I was confident when I left, this is not a wreck. This is murder.

And then before the sheriff came in, Randy Murdaugh was calling. He was doing a workman's comp claim for Joel, and so he called Joel and offered to investigate. All he wanted was his electronics, his passwords, his Facebook, and he didn't ask any questions, just, "I just need those electronics." It just didn't make no sense. And then when I was going to the funeral home to set up arrangements, I seen Randy Murdaugh and Alex Murdaugh on the scene where Stephen's body was. Stephen's body left the roadway at 9:30, and it had to be about...10:30, 11:00 the same day.

After a couple days had gone by, we're out there still trying to comb that scene to try to find something because no other law enforcement is willing to help. He shows up with a camera and wants to come in the crime scene. I said, "I'm sorry. You can't come in here." I told him if he wanted to take pictures, he could take them after we were gone. But it wasn't about taking pictures. It was about seeing what we were doing to try to get one step ahead. It's the only thing that makes sense to me. If you wanted pictures, you could have got those at any time. Makes you wonder, is Murdaugh involved in that?

His body was found in the middle of the road. He had blunt force trauma to his head. They were able to locate his car, which was several miles away, parked on the side of the road. The car was not running. The gas cap was off and hanging, the implication being that he was walking home to his father's house. The pathologist had issued a report that it was a hit-and-run. She said that the reason she thought it was a hit-and-run is 'cause his body was found in the road.

Stephanie in an interview.	01:17:25	STEPHANIE (VO/ON) When they told me that Stephen got hit by a car, You know, I told them, I said, "No, he couldn't have." Growing up, me and Stephen, we walked the roads all the time. It didn't matter what time it was. We'd sneak out the house and walk down our rural country road 3:00, 4:00 in the morning. If a car came, we would jump in the woods. You know, we were more afraid of what was on the road than what was in the woods, 'cause Stephen always said, you know, nobody's gonna kidnap his sexy behind. So we always just--we were cautious.

Shots of Hampton County.	01:18:38	SANDY (VO/ON) It was hard. I mean, he couldn't, like, really go out and be hisself. Hampton was such a small, prejudiced community. So he got bullied a little bit, but he never let it bother him.

Photos of Stephen.	01:19:15	MIKE (VO/ON) The coming out process is really hard to describe, and straight people will never understand it. The looking and checking yourself, "Am I being noticed?" The scanning the room to see whether there's danger. A young man like Stephen, who may have been more openly effeminate, he probably did that on a constant basis.

It's a reference to a collision in Hampton County on Sandy Run Road. There was not a whole lot done in that investigation until, you know, MAIT became involved. We are an investigative unit specifically in the area of car accidents. As far as evidence here, there's only evidence of where the body was found. There's no parts to a car or truck or any other vehicle. I also took pictures of the body at the mortuary. There is some scrapes and scratches on his left and right arm, on his knuckles, some across his face. But his injuries pertain to his head area. Does not appear to be, in my opinion, struck by a vehicle. There were several red flags from the start in this investigation. Things that were not there should have been there. For example, there's no glass. With that type of force, there would be glass on the ground or possibly in the body. There's no tire marks. There was no paint from the vehicle, no oil transfer. The phone didn't even fall out of his pocket. Phone didn't shatter. The way

Pilar in an interview.	01:38:16	PILAR (VO/ON) Buster was not making a big point to either be a part of the investigation or try to dispel rumors. He seemed to be extremely uninterested and uncaring, which also, I think, speaks to, like, a classic Murdaugh mentality of thinking he was completely above the law and that ignoring the problem would make it go away.

Shots of the police in Murdaugh's house.	01:42:04	GEORGE (ON/VO) There's no need to do that. The police have got ties with them Murdaughs all the way from their great-granddad to their granddad to their daddy. They all got pull through the law. When they found Paul and his mama dead, they had everybody from Colleton County, Hampton County there investigating it. Stephen dies, they just put him in a body bag. He was hit by a car. Who cares?
